PROCEEDINGS OF THE COUNCIL

OCTOBER 18, 1946

It is our privilege to meet again in Old St. Paul's Parish House this lovely Autumn day. A year has passed and it is a joy to "Gather" and meet old friends. We extend our sympathy to Dr. Egbert Watson Magruder in the death of his sweet and charming wife since last we saw him.

The minutes of the last Council Meeting have already been published in the Year Book. Last year there was no Council meeting called after the adjournment as there was no business to be acted upon. Notices for the present meeting of the Council were sent to all Council members.

The Council of the Clan Gregor Society met at the Parish House of Old St. Paul's Church, Rock Creek, on Friday, October 18, 1946. The Chieftain, Mr. Frank Cecil Magruder, called the Council to order at 10:30 o'clock. Those present were: The Chieftain, Dr. Egbert Watson Magruder, Mr. Herbert Thomas Magruder, Mrs. Susie May van den Berg, Miss Regina Magruder Hill, Miss Rebecca M. MacGregor, and Mrs. Anne Wade Sheriff, Deputy Scribe. Mr. Thomas Henry McGregor, a member from Little Rock, Arkansas, sat in with the Council.

The Deputy Scribe read her report which was approved. The death of one of our Council members Marion Myrl Harrison, was reported.

A discussion of a proposal to allow advertising in the Year Book followed. It was moved and carried that the Year Book carry advertising on the last inside pages and a committee was appointed consisting of the Editor, the Registrar, and the Historian, with Thomas Garland Magruder, Chairman, to solicit and pass on advertising to be placed in the Year Book.

It was voted to state for the benefit of new members joining the Society during the year that Annual Dues are due and payable in advance at the time of the Annual Gathering in October of each year as the Clan year is from October to October.

Mrs. van den Berg presented the following for consideration:

"It is regrettable that an error was made in the dating of the current Year Book. Dating it 1945, is a date duplication of the preceeding Year Book, which is correct. It is regrettable from the standpoint of indexing which refers to pages in a given Year Book.

"I respectfully submit this solution as a correction to this error: That all Libraries that have our Year Books on their shelves to be written to by the Scribe and asked to change the date of the last Year Book (dated 1945) to read '1946' on the Cover of that particular issue.

"In order that further complications as to the year of publication which would affect the indexing of the Year Books be eliminated, I suggest that the method of designating our Year Books be changed and that we use Volume together with the date of publication, starting with the issue published in 1947 as Volume XXXII. If for any reason we had to skip a Year Book in a given year (as has been done) this new method would not upset any Library indexing as indexing would be done by Volume, and the book would be the following Volume to the last Volume that was printed.

"The Year Book published in 1947 will be the 32nd Year Book in a full set as there are some double volumes, 1909-10; 1911-12; 1924-25; 1926-27; and no Year Books were issued in the years 1918, 1942 and 1943. It is advisable in binding to retain the covers on each book. This is being done extensively with books of this type.

"I respectfully recommend that the two following motions be presented to the Society:

- 1—That the date of the Year Book published in 1946 and marked '1945' be changed on the front cover to read, '1946.'
- 2—That future publications of the Year Book be marked on the Cover to read Volume and the date of Publication, as Volume XXXII, Published in 1947."

The above two recommendations were adopted.

The Scribe was instructed to notify all Libraries which have the Year Books of the Society on their shelves to make the changes as outlined above.

Notice of this change in dating will appear in the front of the Year Book Volume XXXII to be Published in 1947.

There being no further business, it was moved to adjourn at 11:30 A.M.

Respectfully submitted,

ANNE WADE SHERIFF, Deputy Scribe.

COMMITTEE FOR FUTURE PLANNING

HERBERT THOMAS MAGRUDER, Temporary Chairman

The meeting of the Committee was called to order by Mr. Herbert T. Magruder, Chairman, on Friday, 18, 1946, at 11:30 A.M.

The motion was moved and seconded that the officers study the disposition to be made of the planning fund, and that they make their recommendations at the next meeting.

Mr. Henry Magruder Taylor suggested that in view of the splendid start the Committee had made permanent officers should be elected, and that Herbert Thomas Magruder be made permanent chairman. Mr. Magruder believed the officers should rotate, however he agreed that he could handle the work for one more year. The motion was made and seconded that Mr. Herbert Thomas Magruder be appointed Chairman for the coming year. Carried.

The motion was made and seconded that Catherine Sloane O'Loughlin be appointed Secretary for the coming year. Carried.

The question was discussed regarding the combining of the offices of secretary and treasury to relieve the burden on the general treasurer.

A motion was made and seconded that Dorothy Magruder, who has been acting secretary and treasurer, be appointed to serve as Committee Treasurer for the coming year. Carried.

The suggestion was made, and agreed upon, that the matter of donations left in wills continue as previously outlined in the Year Book.

Mrs. van den Berg brought up the need for a headquarters of some kind, preferably an old Magruder home, where the Archives and all Clan papers and Clan work could be taken care of. This matter will be considered and reported upon later.

The meeting was adjourned.

CATHERINE SLOANE O'LOUGHLIN for

DOROTHY T. MAGRUDER, Acting Chairman.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE 1946 ANNUAL GATHERING OF THE AMERICAN CLAN GREGOR SOCIETY

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, OCTOBER 18 and 19, 1946

The 1946 annual gathering of the American Clan Gregor Society was called to order by the Chieftain, Frank C. Magruder, at 1 P.M. in the Parish House, St. Paul's, Rock Creek Church, Washington, D. C., with approximately fifty (50) members present. The Clan Chaplain, Rev. Enoch Magruder Thompson, gave the invocation. The pine boughs used for decoration were furnished by Mrs. Frank Pelham Stone and a charming bouquet of fall flowers supplied by Mr. George C. Shaffer, of Shaffer, Inc., Florists, was placed on the grand piano.

The Chieftain greeted those present, complimented the members and the Committee Chairmen on the successful culmination of some of their activities, stated his wish that even greater accomplishment might be possible during 1947 due to the cessation of hostilities and expressed his gratitude for the co-operation which he as Chieftain had enjoyed.

Greetings from absent members were read and The Historian made a biographical report of members who have passed away since the 1945 gathering.

The report of the Treasurer, Mr. John Edwin Muncaster, was read and made a part of the minutes.

Medals and Certificates of Appreciation were presented to the next of kin of World War II Gold Star Heroes by the Chieftain, assisted by Mr. Herbert Thomas Magruder. It was a very impressive ceremony and a sincere gesture on the part of the entire Clan membership to show its deepest gratitude for service.

A pilgrimage was made to St. Paul's Church, Rock Creek, where a Memorial Service was conducted by the Chaplain, assisted by Rev. Charles Wills Wood, Rector. There followed the dedication of the memorial tree, a gift of Mrs.

Philip Hill Sheriff, in memory of her grandson, Calvert Sheriff Bowie, and his Gold Star Comrades. A bronze tablet bearing their names is to be placed beneath this tree. A very beautiful poem "The Pine Tree," by Caleb Clarke Magruder was read by Mr. Herbert Thomas Magruder.

The evening session was opened with a short address of welcome by the Chieftain. Honor Roll members were marshalled by Col. Henry Magruder Taylor to the stage, music being furnished by William Lachlin Kennedy Galloway with the bagpipes.

The World War II Service Flag was presented by Mrs. Ruth Worthington Bowie Houghton, unveiled by Abbott Hayden and was accepted by the Chieftain.

The Honor Roll members were addressed by Brig. Gen. John Magruder, and Commodore John Holmes Magruder, Jr., and all were presented emblems and certificates of appreciation by the Chieftain, assisted by Mr. Herbert Thomas Magruder.

The assembly was addressed by the Hon. George L. Radcliffe, U. S. Senator from Maryland, and President of the Maryland Historical Society.

Presentation of a Chieftain's medallion was made by Mr. William Marion Magruder and accepted by the Chieftain.

The gathering was entertained with a group of original songs which were sung by Mrs. A. A. Garthoff, accompanied at the piano by the composer, Mrs. William H. Meyers. A pleasant social hour followed.

A group of piano selections were given before and after the Gathering by Miss Helen Rita Dwyer and Robert Merle Freeman, one of our Junior members.

The meeting on Saturday, October 19, was called to order at 1 P.M. by the Chieftain.

Reports of the various committees were heard and became a part of these minutes. Some of these were short-term committees and have completed their work while others will continue to function.

The Registrar read the list of new members.

Deputy Chieftains were appointed to serve during 1947.

The Chieftain presented the following motions with regard to the date of the Year Books which were recommended and accepted by the Council:

Moved by Mrs. van den Berg and seconded by Miss Thrift that the date of the Year Book published in 1946 and marked "1945" be changed on the front cover to read "1946." This motion was carried.

It was further moved by Mrs. van den Berg and seconded by Miss Rebecca MacGregor that future publications of the Year Books be marked on the cover to read "Volume" and show the date of Publication, as "Volume XXXII, Published in 1947." This motion was regularly carried.

The Scribe was instructed to write letters to Libraries who carry the Clan Gregor Year Books advising them of these changes so that they can bring their copies up to date prior to receipt of the Year Book to be published in 1947.

The following officers were elected:

FRANK C. MAGRUDER . . . . .	Chieftain
COMMODORE JOHN HOLMES MAGRUDER . . . . .	Ranking Deputy Chieftain
MRS. L. JANE MAGRUDER HAYDEN . . . . .	Scribe

REV. ENOCH MAGRUDER THOMPSON . . . . .	Chaplain
MRS. CLEMENT WILLIAM SHERIFF . . . . .	Deputy Scribe
DR. ROGER GREGORY MAGRUDER . . . . .	Surgeon

All newly elected officers have accepted the office for which elected and the Chieftain with the provision that the 1947 term be the close of his tenure.

No further business appearing the gathering closed with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" led by Miss Emma Muncaster.

On Saturday evening the Clan was entertained by Magruder Chapter, District of Columbia Daughters of the American Revolution, at a lovely Reception at the Chapter House. Refreshments were served and music furnished by the D.A.R. Chairman for the Advancement of American Music, Mrs. Dorothy S. Ragan, and Miss Helen Rita Dwyer.

ADDRESS OF THE CHIEFTAIN

FRANK CECIL MAGRUDER

MY CLANS PEOPLE, HEARTY GREETINGS:

Another year has elapsed. It has been a busy year and has taught its many lessons. The present with its duties is upon us. This is the Annual Gathering of our thirty-seventh year since the origin of the American Clan Gregor Society in 1909.

On behalf of the Society I cordially welcome each of you. To the many visitors and friends, for your attendance with us we thank you. To those who are not here, I only wish to express our regrets that they are not privileged to meet with us, to enjoy our programs, clanship and pleasures. We miss them. And to you who are here,

If there is anything more we can do to add to your comfort

If the floor is too wide,

Of the ceiling too far,

Or the decorations should give you a Jar;

If a hammock is preferred

Or you would rather sleep out,

Little things like these we can alter—no doubt,

But on one point we are firm and its no use complaining,

If the weather is wet we will not stop it raining.

In the past year since our last Gathering, there have been some losses in our fold such as the passing, of our Past Chieftain, Caleb Clarke Magruder and our faithful attendant and past scribe Dr. Marion Myrle Harrison. We greatly mourn their departure and deeply sympathize with their loved ones. There are others for whom memorials will be read during this Gathering. This has been a busy year for the officers of the Clan especially Miss Regina Hill, our Historian and Mrs. van den Berg, our Registrar who together have compiled the Service Men's Register, prepared the program for this Gathering, gathered in almost 100 new members and a multitude of other things to promote the welfare of the Clan and to make this gathering as pleasant and enjoyable as possible.

Prior to the last World War the Clan held its annual gatherings at the Willard Hotel where we were permitted to have the use of one of the large first floor rooms two days without charge. This year, however, we were informed that there would be a charge of $75.00 per day for the use of the one room we formerly occupied. So it became necessary to find a place out from the downtown area in which to have our gathering. Rock Creek Church folks very graciously consented for us to have the use of this building for another gathering. Some of you will remember that we met here a year ago.

For the school year 1945 and 1946 the Doctor Edward May Magruder scholarship in the School of Medicine at the University of Virginia, Charlottesville, Va., amounting to $50.00, was given to Nathaniel McGregor Ewell, of Ruckersville, Va. Mr. Ewell is a member of the Clan Honor Roll.

At tomorrow's afternoon meeting there will be read reports of the officers and various committee chairmen and it will be greatly appreciated if as many of you as possibly can will be at that meeting. That will be the business meeting of the Gathering and some very important questions will be up for discussion.

One of the objects of our Clan is "To inspire cordiality among its members." Therefore, let us strive to meet and speak to every member present and let no one hold back or refrain from introducing himself or herself to each person here. It is the duty of everybody here to get acquainted with their near and distant relatives. Meet old friends and make some new ones.

REPORT OF THE TREASURER

JOHN E. MUNCASTER

OCTOBER 18, 1947

About thirty-five years ago there was a Gathering at the old National Hotel and the Chieftain and the Council saddled me with a job. They called it a great honor, and I guess it must have been, because no one has ever been a candidate in opposition.

What will happen when a new treasurer comes in? This old house has an attic about thirty feet square. One-fourth of that space is covered with boxes of Year Books which have been sent to the treasurer for sale. There are fifteen hundred of them at least. A new man will get the legacy, and with modern three-room and no attic homes, he will surely be at a loss.

The worst job is to keep a mailing list. With a membership predominantly women who change names as well as addresses every so often the task is almost beyond doing. Some few send in changes but the most do not, and therefore mail is returned which is expensive.

Balance in Bank October 17, 1946 .....	$ 58.70

From this it may be seen that we are not "balancing our budget." In fact, had we not had the Savings account we would have been compelled to take up a subscription to pay for the Year Books, and as long as so many members fail to contribute to the annual expense by paying their Dues and paying them promptly, it will be more difficult to keep up the traditions of the past.

During the year Mr. W. C. Barrickman, of Austin, Texas, and Lach McLaurin Magruder subscribed to life memberships.

In the early days when the annual dues were one dollar, twenty-five dollars was fixed as the life membership fee. It was ordered that this should be deposited in savings account which at that time paid four per cent. This made an annual payment of one dollar which covered the dues. Now only two per cent is paid, so the life member draws on the Society for about one-half of the cost of the year book which is sent to him. It's a good thing there are only nine on the roll.

The Savings Account started 1945 with $676.41. Two life members added $50. $12.57 was added in interest, and $25.00 added in October, 1946. $350.00 was drawn out to pay for the Year Books, leaving a balance of $413.98 as of October 17, 1946.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE FOR FUTURE PLANNING

HERBERT THOMAS MAGRUDER, Acting Chairman

This Committee was appointed by the Chieftain at the Clan Gathering of 1945. Our Registrar, by letter to the membership, and subsequently in person at the Gathering last year, presented the need of funds for expansion of the activities of this Society. Such need includes the following projects:

Placing Year Books in a greater number of Libraries.

Photostating Old Family Bible Records, Wills, Land Grants, Marriage Bonds and Genealogical Charts.

Cuts of Historic Photographs.

Preparation of a Comprehensive Index of Year Books and other data.

Binding the Society's Membership and Genealogical Records.

As an ultimate objective, the Acquisition of an Old Maryland Home, for the Society's Headquarters.

Approval of the project was given by a mail vote, and by formal action taken at the Gathering last year. Formal organization of this Committee was deferred until this year. By designation of the Chieftain, the speaker has acted in the capacity of Acting Chairman of the Committee.

The principal activity of the Committee during the past year has been that of securing funds required to cover the cost of Badges of Honor and Certificates of Appreciation now to be awarded to those who served in the Armed Forces in World War II. This seemed a proper and desirable objective; and through your committee's efforts the presentation ceremonies this year have been made possible.

Eighty-eight members of the Society have generously contributed an amount sufficient to meet the cost. Total contributions received amounted to $392, which was disbursed as follows:

Cost of 85 Badges of Honor for members who were in Active Service; and posthumously in honor of 13 who have given their lives.....	$217.64
Cost of 400 Engraved certificates of appreciation for all on Honor Roll, members and non-members .....	161.40
For Postage, forwarding Badges and Certificates .....	12.96
Total.....	$392.00

For the Permanent Fund seven contributions have been received. They are as follows:

In Memory of Miss Mary Therese Hill (contributed Mrs. Rosalind G. Magruder and by Herbert T. Magruder) .....	$ 17.00
In Memory of "Pen" Magruder (contributed by his Mother).....	15.00

Additional contributions received from the following without designation: Miss Lula Gray Auld, Mrs. Frederick H. Baugh, Mrs. Mary Cecilia Freeland, Miss Carrie Pearman.....	19.00
Total.....	$ 51.00

So here we have a beginning. Funds contributed in memory of revered members and loved ones who have gone, should prove an excellent way of keeping memories green. It is hoped that others will wish to add to these two memorial funds which have been started; and additional memorial funds established. Donors may direct the particular use to which their gifts shall be applied, if they wish. Some may wish to make provision in their wills of bequests of even very modest amounts, as proof of loyalty and devotion to American Clan Gregor Society. How better can one be remembered and honored?

Through the enterprise of our Registrar, Mrs. van den Berg, the project of furnishing on subscription copies of the MacGregor Coat of Arms under the Society's sponsorship, has been inaugurated. Profits from this project will go into the Permanent Fund.

As your Committee has helped in the realization of plans for the success of this year's Gathering, it should continue to develop ways of accomplishing other objectives. Our Society has been greatly invigorated this year. The stimulus of interest widely aroused must not be lost. Permanent Organization of this Committee for Future Planning should help to bring about results in which we can all take pride.

MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE

REGINA MAGRUDER HILL, Chairman

There was enrolled in the American Clan Gregor Society this year 69 new members which shows good work in many sections. The membership record is:

Arizona .....	1	Maryland .....	11
California .....	2	Missouri .....	2
Connecticut .....	1	Mississippi .....	1
D. of C. ....	9	New York .....	2
Georgia .....	5	Rhode Island .....	2
Idaho .....	1	South Carolina .....	1
Indiana .....	3	Tennessee .....	1
Kansas .....	1	Texas .....	5
Kentucky .....	12	Virginia .....	5
Louisiana .....	1	West Virginia .....	1
		Wisconsin .....	1

Reinstatements were 40 as follows:

District of Columbia led with 6, and New York next with 5; Louisiana, Maryland, and Virginia, each had 4; Kentucky, 3; Mississippi, Missouri, and Texas, each 2; and Arkansas, Georgia, Illinois, Maine, Michigan, Ohio, Oklahoma and West Virginia, each 1.

A letter was sent to each Deputy Chieftain, who is the Membership Chairman in his respective state, asking them to contact prospective members, and your chairman wrote many letters in connection with the work, writing to persons in states where there is no Deputy Chieftain.

The Year Books are well worth the membership dues and the 1946 Year Book contains much interesting and valuable information. The next Year Book will tell about our 1946 Gathering, what the Clan plans to do, and about the Coat-of-Arms which was on display at the 1946 Gathering, and which may be purchased as you will see by reading the article on the MacGregor Coat-of-Arms by Mrs. van den Berg in this current issue.

There should be a large increase in membership before the Gathering in 1947. We hope that every member of the Clan will bring in one new member this coming year, and if each Deputy Chieftain brings in two new members it will mean much in helping the Clan to do the things it wants to do.

We trust that all of our members will be prompt in the payment of their Dues so that the Clan obligations may be met and the Year Book gotten out to the members early in the year.

HONOR ROLL AND FLAG PROJECT

REGINA MAGRUDER HILL, Chairman

The work on the Honor Roll Committee has been heavy this past year. Our membership who sent in names were contacted and the answered questionnaires give up-to-date information as to rank, where the personnel served, names of their wives and children if married, and the parents of the Service men and women. All of this information was typed on the record card, for each man or woman, which we have in our files.

Copy for the Certificates of Appreciation was prepared and the Certificates gotten out. Mrs. Frank Cecil Magruder loaned her Die for the gold seal at the top. A list was made out of the ones to receive these certificates and sent to a professional penman for the names to be written in. Seals were prepared for the Certificates for which Mr. Herbert Thomas Magruder loaned his Die and he attended to the purchase and stamping in of the seals. The loan of these two Dies saved greatly on the expense of this project.

Programs were sent to all on the Honor Roll and to their parents and many personal letters were written in connection with the Honor Roll.

The material for our lovely Service Flag was presented by Mrs. Ruth Worthington Bowie Houghton and the flag was made by our Registrar, Mrs. van den Berg.

All of the information sent in in the form of Questionnaires, newspaper clippings, Citations, pictures, notices of marriages, and Memorials has been compiled into a Scrapbook of World War II. The Committee asks that the members send in anything of this nature to be added to this Scrapbook from time to time. This will be a permanent record to be kept in the Archives of the Society.

Our Honor Roll contains 394 members, who served in every branch of the Service. The records show several taken prisoner, 17 wounded, and 18 serving in the Army of Occupation. Thirteen lost their lives in this terrible war. To those we showed special honor at the Friday afternoon session. It is our hope that the lovely little tree planted in their honor will continue to grow and become the mighty tree its "Maine Forest" intended it to be.

ADDRESS OF

BRIGADIER GENERAL JOHN MAGRUDER, RETIRED

This is the first time I have had the pleasure of being present at an assembly of the American Clan Gregor Society. I deeply appreciate the honor of being asked to greet the Honor Roll members—those of the Armed Services who contributed to victory in World War II.

Other members of the Society, more distinguished in war than I, should rightly speak in the name of the Army. In their absence, however, and without official mandate, I shall say what I believe the Army feels toward you. I know that the Army is not a cold impersonal thing. It does have feelings. These feelings are expressed through the sentiment of its leaders. With few exceptions, I know the foremost of these leaders personally and well. I know their strengths and their weaknesses. They are very human! If they could be here, I know they would be as deeply moved by the occasion as I am. Each in his own way, gruffly or gently, would authenticate the validity of this Honor Roll. Each in his own way would express deep and genuine gratitude to all of you for duty well performed. Compositively, these sentiments—these appreciations—would be precisely what the Army feels about you men and women. It is thus that I interpret the mind of the Army toward you.

As to what your own people think of you, this ceremony speaks for itself. You are about to receive from them formal recognition of their pride in your service to the nation.

Being myself privileged to be a recipient of a token of the collective approval of the Clan, my remarks hereafter will be not in the name of the Army, but as spokesman for the members of the Honor Roll. I shall speak as one of you. Immodestly, perhaps, I shall presume to speak for you in the face of this very gracious tribute from the Clan.

If I know my MacGregors, I am safe in saying that each of us has a sense of unworthiness in being singled out to receive special honors. A ringing "well done" from the massed Clan would be honor enough. We did only what was to be done. Many who were not in the Armed Forces did as much for victory. "E'en do and spae not" is an impelling code—but modest withal. It inspires worthy performance in peace as well as war—performance devoid of showmanship. Such conduct I believe to be typical of the MacGregor breed.

Those of us in the regular services deserve no honors. We can boast of no heroics. We did, as well as we could, what we were long trained to do. Our obligation was doubly clear. We could not have done otherwise.

The temporary members of the armed forces, you who were called to duty, were both privileged and obligated as free men to defend free institutions. Like those of us in the regular services, you were not the arbiters of your participation. You, too, did what you were supposed to do. You could not have done otherwise.

Some there were of Clan Gregor who voluntarily joined the colors. Under no routine obligations, these men and women silently obeyed their consciences and the code of the Clan. On their own initiative they assumed the responsibilities or faced the hazards of War.

I am sure I reflect the unanimous sense of the members of the Honor Roll in observing that to the volunteers the honors of the Society are peculiarly fitting.

To those who went but did not return, the Clan and the Nation owe all the honors the living can bestow. We salute them, and join with their relatives in pride in their memory.

To the Officers and members of the American Clan Gregor Society, we who have served in World War II extend our thanks for your graciousness.

ADDRESS OF COMMODORE JOHN HOLMES
MAGRUDER, JR., RETIRED

Our Chieftain and Fellow Clansmen :

I am greatly honored to be asked by your Committee to address the Society this evening on behalf of those who served in the Navy. It is also a pleasure to follow our distinguished spokesman for the Army, my "namesake", General John Magruder, even though I feel somewhat handicapped lest I fail to measure up to the eloquent standard set by him. This comes most naturally from his eminent service as diplomat and soldier in Europe and Asia.

In complying with the Committee's request to speak for those Clansmen serving in the Navy, I feel a great responsibility and am sure that there are many of you or yours whose accomplishments in the late war make them more worthy of the honor.

I am also a bit overawed as it is my first attendance at a Clan Gathering. However, I begin to feel a trifle reassured in the knowledge that all the MacGregors are "kissing cousins" to some N-th degree. I look around this Gathering to see which of you have inherited some of those Clan heritages that have been passed down from our common ancestor, Alexander, the original immigrant. For example, I note the prominent nose which the General and I seem to share in common and which history tells us was also a characteristic of our Clansman of Civil War days, General John Bankhead Magruder, C. S. A. Seriously, tackling the subject which has been assigned me, I think the Clan can be proud in the knowledge that all of the MacGregors did their duty in these years just passed. I am sure that they carried on the high traditions set by their ancestors since the founding of these United States.

Those of you whose beloved ones made the supreme sacrifice may, as you look at the state of the World today, have some misgivings as to whether or not they gave their lives in vain. I feel that I can assure you they did not.

Also, I am not one who feels that another war is a necessity—but the present stability of international politics is so delicately being maintained that it well behoves us to keep our defensive and offensive power the strongest in the world, not only that our word at the conference tables may be respected, but that we will never again—should a second “Pearl Harbor” occur—be caught unprepared.

As a Naval Officer, I think that I can state in behalf of our Clansmen who served in the Navy that we are proud of your Navy's accomplishments in World War II.

But the Navy expresses its full appreciation of the efficient, whole-hearted and gallant support of its efforts by the ground, air and service forces of the Army, and the full support of the nation as a whole without which your fleet, the shore establishments, the Marine Corps and Coast Guard, the Waves and the Sea-Bees could not have succeeded in the accomplishment of their mission. And I desire particularly to stress the splendid performance of our Naval Reserve—who came from all walks of life to fill those vacancies caused by the greatest and swiftest naval expansion the world has ever known. From a 1939 personnel total of less than 150 thousand in the Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard, we expanded in course of the four following years to approximately three million. There were many in our Clan who three years before had never seen the sea—who came from banks, lawyers offices and like unmilitary pursuits, placed in command of combat vessels, landing craft, etc., who handled their commands in face of the enemy, through foul weather and navigation and battle hazards, with the skill of veteran sailormen.

From the actions of the Coral Sea and Midway, the landings that marked the step by step recapture of the control of the Pacific—to the retaking of the Philippines—then Iwo Jima, Okinawa and finally Japan itself—whilst on the other side of the world in the invasion of North Africa, Sicily and Italy, the Normandy Landings and the crossing of the Rhine—your Navy, working in close cooperation with our brother services, upheld the highest tradition of your country.

And so, to all those of all Services to whom this Society has seen fit to present these awards this evening, I say "Well done" and "Done like a MacGregor!"

GREETINGS FROM ABSENT MEMBERS

MY FELLOW CLANSMEN:

I have been asked to send a word of greeting to the 1946 Gathering of the Clan and this I gladly do since I am unable to attend in person.

In one of the humid spells of weather in the month of July, I suffered a heat prostration which confined me to bed for over two months. I am out again but not back to my previous state of health. Having passed my eighty-first birthday and having lived happily with one wife for over fifty years, I feel that I have a great deal for which to be thankful; and among these causes for which I give thanks are the acquaintances I have made of the various branches of the Magruder family.

May the Lord bless you and keep you in your goings out and your comings in, may the Lord lift up His countenance upon you and be gracious unto you, severally and collectively, is the sincere prayer of

Your former Chieftain,

JAMES MITCHELL MAGRUDER

Annapolis, Maryland
October 15th, 1946

DEAR CHIEFTAIN AND FELLOW CLANSMEN:

I extremely regret that my duties are such as to make it impossible for me to attend the Clan Gathering this year. I send best wishes for a delightful reunion and a very special greeting to the boys of the MacGregors who by their devotion to duty and gallantry on the Field of Battle contributed so much to the winning of the War. I sincerely hope that in the years to come we will remember this war and extend all our efforts towards securing a sound and lasting peace. I would like to ask that a special prayer be offered for those Clansmen and thousands of boys like them who so valiantly gave their lives that we and our children would be given the opportunity to live in peace.

Sincerely yours,

LT. COLONEL MARION M. MAGRUDER, U. S. M. C.

GOLD STAR MEMBERS OF THE HONOR ROLL

San Diego, California

October 16, 1946

GREETINGS TO OUR CHIEFTAIN AND FELLOW MEMBERS:

I am sorry that duties here at "Ridgeview" with its acres and acres prevent my being with you today. I shall heartily approve your decisions today.

We are planning a Regional Meeting here in Kentucky for July, 1947. The next Year Book will tell you something of our efforts to revere the name of "Magruder" in this locality.

May the blessings of God rest upon each of you, as well as all our Clansmen.

Most sincerely yours,

GUY RUSSELL HENDERSON

Deputy Chieftain, Kentucky

Shepherdsville, Ky.

October 15, 1946

FELLOW CLANSMEN:

I cannot tell you how sorry I am that I cannot attend this year's Gathering, but "Uncle Samuel" insists upon keeping me until my six year contract expires. Please extend my regrets to the other members with the sincere promise that nothing shall stand in the way of my attending the 1947 Gathering.

Sincerely,

FORREST DODGE BOWIE

"Mt. Lubentia", Maryland

BRONZE TABLET DEDICATED

TO

GOLD STAR MEMBERS OF THE HONOR ROLL

On the afternoon of December Seventh, 1946, under the auspices of Magruder Chapter, District of Columbia D. A. R., was dedicated a Bronze Tablet to the memory of Calvert Sherriff Bowie and his Gold Star Comrades on the Honor Roll for World War II of the American Clan Gregor Society. The Tablet was presented by his grandmother, Mrs. Philip Hill Sheriff (Walter Ann McCormick), and placed beside a Spruce Pine Tree in Rock Creek Cemetery beside the walk leading from the Rock Creek Church Road to Old St. Paul's Church. The flag of the United States of America and the Service Flag of the Society for World War II were displayed.

The Service was conducted by the Chaplain of the Society, Rev. Enoch Magruder Thompson of the Church of the Nativity, and a Memorial to each of the men was read by the District of Columbia State Chaplain, D. A. R., Mrs. Manly G. Miller:

CALVERT SHERIFF BOWIE

Calvert Sheriff Bowie, son of George Calvert Bowie and the late Susan Beall Sheriff, was born February 13, 1918. He was reported missing in action after he failed to return from a mission on May 30, 1943. He was pilot of a Marine Corps Torpedo Bomber and knocked out a 3000-ton Jap cargo ship before he was lost in a raid near Guadalcanal. He was officially declared lost by the Marine Corps, May 30, 1945.

A Scholarship has been founded in his memory at St. Albans' School from which he graduated in 1936, known as the Calvert Sheriff Bowie Scholarship, to be awarded each year by the Head Master of the School to a public school boy who is deserving and in need of financial assistance. Calvert received his "B. A." Degree from Dartmouth in 1940.

Calvert Sheriff Bowie was the grandson of our Council Member, Mrs. Philip Hill Sheriff, and the nephew of the Clan's "Own Jack Bowie" who used to delight the members with his rendition of "MacGregors Gathering" each year. (See also, 1944 Year Book, P. 32)

NORMAN BUTLER BRISCOE

Colonel Norman Butler Briscoe, son of James Francis Briscoe and Minnie Butler, was born in Charles Town, Jefferson County, West Virginia, April 1, 1885 and died at Fort Knox, Kentucky, January 15, 1945. He was buried at Arlington. A graduate of West Point in 1909 he was a Calvary Officer in the Regular U. S. Army and saw active service in World War I in France. He commanded and enlarged The Port of Fort Knox, Kentucky, 1940-1945, where he was stationed in World War II and where he died. The Legion of Merit was awarded Colonel Briscoe posthumously and was received by his son, Lieutenant John James Briscoe, also a graduate of West Point in 1945, and who is on our World War II Honor Roll. Colonel Briscoe married Anne L. Oliver, daughter of Colonel Oliver of the United States Army. (See also, 1945 Year Book, P. 46)

ROY EDWARD BUCHANAN

In memory of Roy Edward Buchanan, eldest son of Dorothy Magruder and the late Charles Wilson Buchanan, a veteran of World War I, of Bryan, Texas.

Edward was just a boy when he joined the Navy being just 17 years old. He left home with a wave of his hand, his laughing eyes bright, and a happy smile on his face, now only a memory. He went down on the Ship Johnston off Leyte, October 24, 1944. As Radioman he was faithful to his task when the Japs bombed his ship along with six others. No Cross marks his resting place, just "Missing in Action". (See also, 1946 Year Book, P. 51)

PINE TREE AND BRONZE TABLET

Dedicated December 7, 1946.

EDGAR MCGREGOR CLINKSCALES

Private Edgar McGregor Clinkscates, son of Edgar H. Clinkscates and the late Selma Kathleen McGregor, was reported "Missing in Action" until the Fall of Corregidor on May 7, 1942. On May 23, 1943 he was reported "A Prisoner of War" of Japan and a few weeks later, June 16, 1943, was reported having died in the Japanese Prison Camp.

WILLIAM ALBERT FULLER

William Albert Fuller was born February 4, 1903 in Alexandria, Va., and died in Shanghai, China, November 10, 1945. He was educated in the public schools and Columbia Preparatory School of Washington, D. C., and entered West Point Military Academy July 1, 1921, graduating June 10, 1925. He was ordered with the first Task Force to India in March, 1942, and served in China, Burma and India. He was the son of Robert Waight Fuller and Elizabeth Fitzhugh Smoot. ## JOSEPH SHIRLEY MAJOR, JR.

On the Tablet appears the name of Joseph Shirley Major, Jr., of South Carolina. He was reported as having been killed in action. We are happy to learn that this was a mistake and that Lieut. Major has returned to his home safe. This information reached us too late to prevent his name appearing as the Tablet had been cast.

JAMES LINWOOD PAGE

James Linwood Page, son of the late Annie Magruder and Horace L. Page, was drafted into the Army. After serving for several months he received a Medical Discharge. He died March 10, 1943 following an automobile accident, and is buried at Chipley, Georgia. His death was not Service connected, but as in the case of Lieut. Major, the Tablet was cast before we received this information.

The Memorial Tree was dedicated on October 18, 1946, at the time of the Annual Gathering of the American Clan Gregor Society. It was brought from the camp of George Calvert Bowie in the woods of Maine by Mrs. Sheriff on her return home from a visit to this camp and her two small grandsons, children of her daughter Susan Beall Sheriff. Mrs. Sheriff planted the tiny sapling in her garden, nurtured and tended it until it grew to be the thing of beauty it now is: a living monument to these men who did not come home.

These men are all descended from ancestors who served in the War of the American Revolution and Colonial Wars, and all stem from Alexander Magruder, 1611-1677, who came from Perthshire, Scotland to Southern Maryland via the Barbados in 1652.

Calvert Sheriff Bowie's Revolutionary Ancestor was Major Samuel Wade Magruder of Maryland, 1728-1792, to whom a Tablet was placed in Old St. Paul's Church, and dedicated by Magruder Chapter, on October 16, 1925. Mrs. Sheriff was then Regent of the Chapter and is now Vice-Regent. Calvert's Paternal grandmother, Mrs. Thomas Somervell Bowie (Agnes Woods MacGregor), was a Charter member of Magruder Chapter.

Present at the Dedication of the Tablet were: Mrs. Philip Hill Sheriff, Mr. and Mrs. George Calvert Bowie, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cecil Magruder, Reverend Enoch Magruder Thompson, Mrs. Manly G. Miller, Mrs. O. O. van den Berg, Miss Regina Magruder Hill, Mr. Robert W. Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bronson, Jr. (Phoebe Fuller), Mr. and Mrs. Philip Somervell Bowie, Dr. and Mrs. Laidler Mackall (Evelyn Bowie), Mrs. Norman Butler Briscoe, Miss Ida MacCormick, Mr. Henry Rachlin, Mrs. Clement W. Sheriff, Mrs. Mary Brooks Duvall, Mrs. Alan E. Gruber, Mrs. Ralph Boyer, Mrs. Lawrence J. Penkert, Mrs. John Rochford Dwyer, Mrs. John Eldridge Loveless, Mr. Robert Merle Freeman, Miss F. Eleanor Smith, Mrs. Brooke E. Shell, Mrs. Eugene R. Barrett, Mrs. John N. Wilson, and Mr. and Mrs. Claiborne R. Mobley.

TWELVE GENERATIONS IN AMERICA

By

W. C. BARRICKMAN

I am preparing a "Chart" as requested by the Chieftain, especially for the information of the descendants of my great-great-grandfather, Archibald Magruder, Sr., pioneer Kentucky settler, as well as a Maryland Revolutionary Soldier. Inasmuch, however, as the first four generations have a pertinent relation to other descendants (than those of Archibald) of our Immigrant Ancestor, Alexander Magruder, I am submitting a summary of these generations for publication in the Year Book.

The data used in this summary has been verified by reference to the Year Books, by the examination of official church, court and county records, and by original research by myself and others. I am therefore prepared to defend the facts presented—until they are proven incorrect by incontrovertible evidence.

ASSUMPTIONS

Many years ago I attended a meeting of cottongrowers at New Orleans. The meeting was highly interesting, the enthusiasm great and the speeches many. Finally, near the close of a session, a prosperous looking old negro of the shouting type, evidently carried away by the excitement of the moment, arose from the rear of the hall and said: "Mistuh Chai'man! I don' wanna make a speech, caze I ain't got anything to say, but as eve'ybody else is talkin' I wanna talk some myself."

Members of American Clan Gregor Society and contributors to the Year Books have assumed, on the basis of a single deed, dated March 11, 1670/71, and signed by "Sarah Magruder", as the wife of Alexander, that he was married three times in Maryland,—first to Margaret Braithwaite, who is accredited alone on the tradition in the family of her son, Samuel Magruder; second, to Sarah _____, on the basis of the deed; and third, to Elizabeth, named as his wife in his will.

Since others have assumed so much, I want to do a little "assuming", too.

Alexander says in the will that Elizabeth is his wife, and that Alexander is her son; Alexander, the son, himself testifies (Y. B. 1931, p. 72) that he was born in 1671; it follows, then, that Alexander and Elizabeth were married before that date; between 1660 and 1670, Alexander is shown by the records to have made deeds and assignments of land, which are not signed by a wife, and in which none is mentioned; consequently, I think it is both plausible and reasonable to "assume" that his last wife's name was Sarah Elizabeth, generally known as Elizabeth, but in giving her name as Sarah Elizabeth, at a very formal event, to the clerk who wrote the deed, he recorded the first part of it only. Can any of my fellow-Scots "assume" anything better than that? I think it is logical, and I believe it is true. Anyway, as far as I am concerned, it disposes of Sarah.

dants, declares that he was the son of Alexander and Margaret Braithwaite; in the absence of any proof to the contrary, I think we are justified in accepting the oral testimony to the fact as passed down from generation to generation; Samuel married, date not known, Sarah Beall, a daughter of Col. Ninian and Ruth (Moore) Beall. Their children, named in their wills:

CALEB CLARKE MAGRUDER, III

CALEB CLARKE MAGRUDER, III

By

JUDGE CHARLES C. MARBURY

In the death of Caleb Clarke Magruder, III on Tuesday, August 27th, 1946, this community lost one of its best liked and distinguished citizens. The son of the late Caleb Clarke ("Cincy") Magruder II and Bettie Rice Nalle, he was born at Upper Marlboro, on February 20, 1870, and is survived by three brothers, Thomas N. Magruder, former County Treasurer; M. Hampton Magruder, prominent lawyer and until recently Collector of Internal Revenue; and Arthur H. Magruder, now a real estate broker. A fourth brother, Dr. Ernest Magruder, died of typhus fever while serving in the armed forces in Serbia during the First World War.

Although scholarly, he was extremely modest. While he held strong convictions he was able to exchange his views with others without offending their sensibilities. His warm personality won and kept for him a host of friends throughout his life.

He obtained his early schooling at the Old Marlboro Academy, after which he attended Georgetown College where he received his Bachelor of Arts degree. For a time he was a reporter on the "Baltimore Morning Herald." After attending Johns Hopkins University, he took a special course at Cornell University, but later returned to Georgetown Law School where he was given his LL. B. and was admitted to the Bar.

While splendidly equipped for the practice of his profession, he seems not to have cared for the Law, but preferred to spend his life in the assembling of historical and genealogical data, and authorship. He was the author of numerous monographs on historical events and personages prominent in the early history of Maryland, both in provincial times and as a state. Notable among these published in booklet form are biographical accounts of "Colonel Joseph Belt" of "Chevy Chase" Manor which he built in 1722, "Colonel Ninian Beall" to whom were patented more than 13,000 acres in Prince George's and adjoining counties, and "Dr. William Beans," who was the incidental cause of the authorship of "The Star Spangled Banner" by Francis Scott Key.

In his sketch of Colonel Ninian Beall, Mr. Magruder relates that Colonel Beall deeded to Nathaniel Taylor a half acre of ground in Upper Marlboro, part of a tract of eighty-two acres patented December 4, 1694, known as "The Meadows", whereon was erected a church in 1707, and that this venerable Ruling Elder among the Patuxent Presbyterians gave to the congregation a silver communion service. The church, which is now the site of Trinity Episcopal Church, was later abandoned and the congregation moved to Bladensburg, and later to Hyattsville, where it still retains most of the pieces of the original communion service.

The booklet on Dr. Beans describes in an intensely interesting manner the events which caused Key to witness the bombardment of Fort McHenry by the British fleet, resulting in his inspiration and writing of "The Star Spangled Banner". When the British Army, under General Ross, returned after taking Washington, sacking the town and burning the capitol, some stragglers who had committed depredations were arrested by a citizens' committee, of which Dr. Beans was the leader, and thrown in jail. Dr. Beans was held responsible for this, was arrested, placed aboard one of Admiral Cockburn's ships and taken to Baltimore.

With the consent of President Madison, two of his intimate friends, Francis Scott Key and John S. Skinner, went down the Patapsco River under a flag of truce to intercede with Admiral Cockburn in an effort to secure Beanes' release. They were successful in their mission but were detained aboard ship until after the attack on Fort McHenry.

In 1932, during the George Washington Bicentennial, Mr. Magruder was made chairman of the Bicentennial Committee of Prince George's County. Through his efforts roadside markers were placed throughout the County commemorating the associations of George Washington with many of the landmarks of his time. To him is due the credit for composing the inscription commemorating these features of Washington's life within the County.

His painstaking research and historical writings have saved from oblivion many of the stirring annals of his native County and State. They stand as a shining memorial to one whose life's work was largely devoted to depicting the deeds and events of the past as an inspiration to succeeding generations.

Caleb Clarke Magruder III served the American Clan Gregor as its first Historian and Editor of the Year Book until 1914; he was Ranking Deputy Chieftain from 1923 to 1925, when he was elected as Chieftain and served until the Gathering in 1926. He served on many Committees and wrote many valuable genealogical papers for the Year Books, notably "John Magruder of 'Dumblane'" in the 1922-1912 Year Book, and "Nathan Magruder of 'Knaves Dispute'" in the 1914 Year Book; "Nathaniel Magruder" in the 1916 Year Book; "Whence Came the Official Pine Worm at our Twenty-five Gatherings" in the 1934 Year Book, and a lovely poem "The Pine Tree" in the 1931 Year Book.

Genealogy: Caleb Clarke Magruder was the son of Caleb Clarke Magruder II, and Elizabeth Rice Nalle; grandson of Caleb Clarke Magruder I, and Mary Sprigg Belt; great-grandson of Thomas Magruder and Mary Clarke; great-great-grandson of Issac Magruder and Sophia Baldwin; great-great-great-grandson of Nathan Magruder and Rebecca Beall; great-great-great-great-grandson of John Magruder and Susanna Smith; great-great-great-great-great-grandson of Samuel Magruder and Sarah Beall, and great-great-great-great-great-great-grandson of Alexander Magruder the Immigrant.

DR. MARION MYRL HARRISON

MARCH 21, 1890-JULY 26, 1946

By William Marion Magruder

The passing of Dr. Marion Myrl Harrison from our midst removes a quiet yet ardent spirit long to be remembered by a host of friends and the American Clan Gregor Society. He was truly a loyal friend and worker for the Clan Gregor and it was his whole heart's desire that every descendant of Alexander Magruder, the immigrant, might be identified with the American Clan Gregor Society. It was through Doctor Harrison that I first learned of the American Clan Gregor Society and the purposes for which it was organized. He possessed a brilliant mind and was a diligent student in his profession until his illness and death.

Doctor Harrison, was the son of Minnie Magruder and James William Harrison of Owensboro, Kentucky and the grandson of Dr. Francis Marion Magruder of Utica, Daviess County, Kentucky. In his youth his parents resided at Bethabara, Daviess County, Kentucky and it was there that he obtained his early schooling. Early in life he was converted and joined the Bethabara Baptist Church. His family soon moved to Owensboro, Kentucky and it was there he attended school until he matriculated in the University of Kentucky.

Doctor Harrison held the B. S. degree from the University of Kentucky where he was graduated in 1912 and the Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy degrees from Clark University at Worcester, Massachusetts.

Doctor Harrison was President of the Harrison-Morton Laboratories at Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio and for 24 years a member of the Chemistry Department of the B. F. Goodrich Company. He joined the Goodrich Company in 1915 and at the time of his resignation in 1939 was Technical Superintendent of the Miller Division.

In 1940 Doctor Harrison and Dr. H. A. Morton founded a chemical laboratory in Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio. Here they developed new chemicals for use in manufacturing rubber. At that time it was the only independent rubber research laboratory in the district.

DR. MARION MYRL HARRISON

At the time of his death Doctor Harrison was associated with two other firms, the Chemico, Inc., and the Rubber-Latex Products, Inc. In World War I he served in the chemical warfare division.

Doctor Harrison is survived by his wife, the former Kernan Ware Bedford; a daughter, Mrs. Harold O. Williamson of Paris, Kentucky; one son, James N. of Frankfort, Kentucky; a sister, Mrs. J. J. Hoover of Owensboro, Kentucky; two nieces and two grandchildren. Services and burial were held in Owensboro, Kentucky.

Genealogy: Marion Myrl Harrison was the son of James William Harrison and Minnie Magruder; grandson of Francis Marion Magruder and Nancy Jane Mobberly; great-grandson of Levi Magruder and Elizabeth Odd; great-great-grandson of Archibald Magruder and Cassandra Offutt; great-great-great-grandson of John Magruder and Jane; great-great-great-great-grandson of Ninian Magruder and Elizabeth Brewer; great-great-great-great-great-grandson of Samuel Magruder and Sarah Beall; and great-great-great-great-great-grandson of Alexander Magruder the Immigrant.

ELIZABETH BATTEY TROUTMAN

1863-1943

By Her Son

ROBERT B. TROUTMAN

Elizabeth Battey (formerly known to her friends as Bessie Battey) was born in Rome, Georgia, September 6, 1863. She received her education in the local school and in Boston. On April 25, 1883 she married M. L. Troutman, Jr., also of Rome, Georgia. They had five children, four of whom are still living, Baldwin L. Troutman, Valdosta, Georgia, Henry B. Troutman, of Atlanta, Mrs. Grace Battey Wilson of Athens and Robert B. Troutman of Atlanta. Mrs. Troutman died March 3, 1943.

In 1892 her husband joined the North Georgia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church; was a Minister to various congregations of that Church in North Georgia. Finally in 1908 they moved to Athens, Georgia, where he served as Pastor of the First Methodist Church until his death on July 5, 1912. Mrs. Troutman then went to the old home place near Rome, and lived there until about the year 1920, when she returned to Athens and became interested in the plight of the farmers in that vicinity. At that time, the boll weevil, commencing in Mexico had spread across the Southeast until it reached Georgia. Its effect on the cotton crop of the farmer was disastrous. By 1921, the combination of the boll weevil and the tremendous drop in the value of the products of the farmer had almost bankrupted Agriculture in the State. Mrs. Troutman found many farm families destitute. She established the first Curb Market in the State, at Rome, Georgia, and about two years later established a Farmers Market in the City of Athens, Georgia, where the farmers brought their products in buggies and wagons and sold them to the housewives in Athens from stations along the curb at the Campus of the University of Georgia. So impoverished were many of these people that they could not afford medical care, and often when the doctor would make no charge for his visit, they did not have enough money to pay for the prescription that he had left. The Farmer's Market relieved this situation and provided a means whereby these farmers could turn their vegetables and similar products into reach cash. The result was that it was a great blessing to these farm people. Girls and boys were sent through college with the money which the farmers' wives received from sales at the Curb Market in Athens. Mortgages on the farms were paid off. The entire community was benefited.

This could not happen without opposition from local merchants, who at first, thought the competition would be harmful. But experience proved that the increased purchasing power to the farmer actually increased the local merchant's business. Some of the stories related by these farmers as to the benefits which they received read like fiction. Many of them became prosperous.

The movement spread and similar markets were established in many communities in the State with her help.

Perhaps the most important part of the story is that her eyesight had become impaired, and she was unable to read. She could not tell the denominations of currency—nevertheless, she established this market and managed it for many years until the farmers were able to rent a permanent building and move in from the curb to first-class quarters in which to operate.

As a result of this, Mrs. Troutman became one of the most popular and useful women in the State. She had one rule of living—in every situation where someone needed help, she tried to be helpful.

Genealogy: Elizabeth Battey Troutman was the daughter of Dr. Robert Battey and Martha Baldwin Smith; granddaughter of Mary Agnes Magruder and Cephas Battey; great-granddaughter of George Magruder and Susannah Williams; great-great-granddaughter of Ninian Offutt Magruder and Mary Harris; great-great-great-granddaughter of Ninian Magruder and Mary Offutt; great-great-great-great-granddaughter of Ninian Magruder and Elizabeth Brewer; great-great-great-great-great-granddaughter of Samuel Magruder and Sarah Beall; and great-great-great-great-great-great-granddaughter of Alexander Magruder and Margaret Braithwaite.

DR. HENRY MAGRUDER DEJARNETTE

Biographic Data written for "The Alumnus" the alumni magazine of the Medical College of Virginia

By J. S. DEJARNETTE, M.D.

Dr. Henry Magruder DeJarnette, son of Capt. Elliott Hawes DeJarnette and Evelyn Magruder, was born at Pine Forest, Spottsylvania County, Virginia, in 1872 and died in Fredericksburg, Virginia, February 15th, 1946, and was buried at Waller's Church. Dr. DeJarnette was educated in the public schools of Spottsylvania County and at Virginia Military Institute, Lexington, Virginia. After he was graduated from the University College of Medicine, School of Medicine in 1897, he spent a few years in Rappahannock County, Virginia, in general practice. At this time his mother developed an incurable trouble and Dr. DeJarnette gave up a good practice and returned to Pine Forest to care for her until her death in 1902.

At the suggestion of his brother, Dr. Joseph S. DeJarnette, he decided to specialize in eye, nose and throat and entered New York Polyclinic to prepare for this work. After completing the course at Polyclinic he located in Charlottesville for a few years when he was called from that city to a partnership with Dr. J. B. Rawlings, Staunton, Virginia. In 1912 after four years with Dr. Rawlings he moved to Fredericksburg, opened and equipped an office of his own and built up a large and lucrative practice in his specialty.

Dr. DeJarnette did much charity work and he made no charge in cases where there was evidence of poverty. His gifts to those in need were extremely generous.

About five years ago he developed a sub-thyroid condition with heart complications, and was forced to curtail his operative work, in which field he had been very successful.

He was an excellent shot and hunting was his favorite sport; he followed the hounds to within a few weeks of his death.

By inheritance and purchase he had considerable land, the cultivation of which furnished him entertainment and provided a sanctuary for partridges and wild turkeys which in the hunting season gave much sport to his host of friends.

On the day of his death, February 15th, 1946, he worked in his office until noon when not feeling so well he went to his room to rest. Dr. Thomas Dew, as was his daily custom, called to see him and while listening to his chest his heart stopped beating. Dr. Dew said "Henry, how do you feel?" He replied "all right," closed his eyes and was gone. Dr. DeJarnette's passing is given in detail, because I am not aware of any recorded case where the patient spoke after the heart ceased to beat and where the physician heard the heart make its last beat.

WALTER DRANE MAGRUDER

By W. M. DRAKE

Former Deputy Chieftain for Mississippi

I.

This member of our society was born in Vicksburg, Mississippi, July 12, 1882, died in Canton, Ohio August 24, 1946. He was the son of Lawson William Magruder and Jessie Kilpatrick, grandson of Samuel Magruder and Rebecca Sprigg Drane, great grandson of William Magruder and Lucy Williams, great-great-grandson of Ninian Beall Magruder and Rebecca Young, great-great-great-grandson of Samuel Magruder 3d and Margaret Jackson, great-great-great-great-grandson of Ninian Magruder and Elizabeth Brewer, great-great-great-great-great-grandson of Samuel Magruder I and Sarah Beall, great-great-great-great-great-great-grandson of Alexander Magruder, the immigrant, and Margaret Braithwaite.

He married Alice Kate Thomson in Ripley, Ohio, June 6, 1906.

Children and grandchildren of this marriage, all living December 15, 1946, are:

1. Jane Pickett Magruder, born Ripley, Ohio, February 25, 1908, who married John Rice Livermore, Denver, Colorado, March 12, 1929 and whose children all born in Denver are: Richard Larrimore Livermore born January 14, 1930; Jane Magruder Livermore born April 5, 1934; and Ann Eliza Livermore born September 29, 1939.
2. Alverda Louise Magruder, born Canton, Ohio, August 4, 1912, who married Robert Herman Stanton Kaufman, Canton, Ohio, January 3, 1933 and whose children all born in Canton are: Caroline Magruder Kaufman born January 4, 1934; Robert H. S. Kaufman, Jr. born May 8, 1936; Barbara Louise Kaufman born August 17, 1938; Thomas Walter Kaufman born June 16, 1940; and William Magruder Kaufman born October 3, 1941.
3. Caroline Kilpatrick Magruder, born Canton, Ohio, June 16, 1916, who married Warren Allen Ostergard, Canton, Ohio, March 12, 1941 and whose children all born in Canton are: Kristen Magruder Ostergard born November 25, 1941; Kaaren Magruder Ostergard born March 11, 1943; Ingrid Magruder Ostergard born August 9, 1945; and Magruder Ostergard born October 25, 1946.
4. Alice Boyd Magruder, born Canton, Ohio, January 1, 1921, who married Edward Grant Stockdale, Greenville, Mississippi, May 31, 1940 in Miami, Florida and whose children both born in Miami, Florida are: Alice Boyd Stockdale (Sally) born April 20, 1941; and Anne Magruder Stockdale born June 29, 1943.

So much for statistics needed to connect Walter Drane Magruder with the past three centuries in America and with the limitless future.

II.

Walter Magruder had six brothers and two sisters. The sisters died in early life. Two brothers are living—Lawson W. Magruder, a planter of Cleveland, Mississippi, and Commodore Cary W. Magruder, U. S. Navy (retired), of Jamestown, Rhode Island. The Year Books have carried information as to the four deceased brothers including special tributes to Admiral Thomas Pickett Magruder and to Lieutenant Sprague Magruder, whose death in the first World War on the ill-fated Ticonderoga was one of truly epic heroism.

Walter grew up in Vicksburg as part of this large family and surrounded by friends he inherited because of the great esteem in which his parents were held. (For a memoir of his father, Major L. W. Magruder, see Year Book for 1922, page 60.) He went to local schools and afterward attended both Sewanee and the University of Mississippi, where he became a member of the old and conservative Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity. Adopting a business career, he made a brief, adventurous trip with a friend to the mines of Nevada, afterward went into fire insurance in his native city, worked for the Mississippi River Commission, then entered the lumber business and for the rest of his life was occupied with building materials. He moved to Canton, Ohio in 1910 and that was his home for thirty-six years. At the time of his death he was president of the Carrollton Manufacturing Company of Canton and chairman of the Boards of the Robertsville Brick Company and the Mapleton Clay Products Company. In recent years he had a winter home in Florida. He transplanted there some fig trees obtained from his boyhood home in Vicksburg and had great pleasure in seeing them grow and bear fruit.

The most fortunate event in our subject's life was his marriage. He brought his bride to Vicksburg to see relatives and friends, and this writer remembers clearly the pleasure all had in meeting her.

Mr. Magruder was reared in the Presbyterian Church but later joined the First Christian Church of Canton. He was a Mason of thirty-second degree. He was fond of sports and deeply interested in racing and the blood lines of Thoroughbred horses.

For some time past Mr. Magruder had suffered from arthritis, that savage and mysterious enemy which our doctors have not yet conquered. He was able to remain active and in a letter to a friend about two weeks before his death wrote, "I am arthritic to the point of lameness but I certainly get around." On August 24 he had a cerebral hemorrhage in his home in Canton and died soon after reaching the hospital.

III.

A Canton newspaper well described Walter Magruder as "colorful." He was distinctly unusual and independent. His manner was spontaneous and unconventional and he was one of the most sociable of all men, making friends in every walk of life. He spoke and wrote fluently and well.

This friend would like to dwell upon two features of his character: first, loyalty to family; second, a talent for seeing and interpreting the humorous element in our human drama. The first quality will be readily understood by his fellow clansmen for it can be traced back to the lochs and peaks of the Highlands; but in him it was especially strong. The second quality made life easier for himself and for others. In good times and bad he presented a cheerful front. He told good stories well and made new jokes out of daily events.

In our day there is too little natural, unaffected laughter. Hatred, Fear, Hunger and Disease brood over Europe and Asia and they are kept in our minds by press and radio. Even children and our good colored people in the Deep South laugh less than heretofore. Some of our great political figures could easily be replaced; but we cannot replace the few we meet in a lifetime who can make us forget tragedy and difficulty and tension and be happy for a moment or an hour. Such a man was lost in the passing of our clansman, Walter D. Magruder.

Genealogy: Walter Drane Magruder was the son of Major Lawson William Magruder and Jessie M. Kilpatrick; grand-son of Samuel Magruder and Rebecca Sprigg Drane; great-grandson of William Magruder and Lucy Williams; great-great-grandson of Ninian Beall Magruder and Rebecca Young; great-great-great-grandson of Samuel Magruder Ye 3; great-great-great-great-grandson of Ninian Magruder and Elizabeth Brewer; great-great-great-great-great-grandson of Samuel Magruder and Sarah Beall, and great-great-great-great-great-great-grandson of Alexander Magruder the Immigrant.

MISS ALICE MAUDE EWELL AN APPRECIATION

Written by Herbert Thomas Magruder

The voice of the singer is hushed. She, who from the very beginning years of American Clan Gregor Society, has been in truth its bard and laureate, has been summoned to join that greater Gathering of forebears, kinfolk and friends; there to reknit in clanship ties broken here by the call to the great beyond.

News of the passing of Miss Alice Maude Ewell, on June 25, 1946; when the great Physician opened his arms to receive her; brought an inevitable feeling of sadness to the hearts of many of the Clanfolk who were privileged to know her. Every thoughtful member of this Society, as well as those who in future years are yet to become members, will acknowledge without hesitation a debt to this true Virginia gentlewoman, who during the formative years contributed so much in inspiration and heart stirring warmth.

A brief paragraph referring to Miss Ewell's death was printed in the current Year Book. A sketch of her life, written by one well qualified is to be contributed. These remarks are offered as an all too inadequate tribute to one who in remembrance comes back in her gentle, sparkling friendly way to claim that place in our hearts that she so well deserves.

At the Clan Gathering in 1910, the first one regularly called after organization, Miss Ewell contributed a stirring poem "MacGregors in America". The poem is long, for its story was one that deserved telling fully. I strongly urge its reading or re-reading on those Clanfolk desirous of knowing the surge of sentiment and tradition that possessed the founders of this Society. Miss Alice Maude Ewell was a founder; her enrollment number being 100. From her poem I quote two couplets which set the spirit of those who gave life to our beloved Society and challenge to their successors:

"But yet remembered still
Was the land their fathers left!"

and

"MacGregors hear! Once more
The call is for thee—Come!"

Later contributions made by Miss Ewell to our now priceless Clan lore include "Transplanted" and "Bairn" (1913); "The Lovely Lady", a graceful tribute to Mrs. Maryel Alpina MacGregor Magruder, (1915); "The March" (1916); "The Tie" (1917); "In Memoriam—Edward May Magruder" (1925); "Dunblane" (1926); "Greetings to the Clan" (1928); and "Maryland Settlers" (1934). She also contributed these biographical sketches "Ellen MacGregor Ewell", her grandmother, whose name was successively Magruder and MacGregor (1914); "Eleanor Mildred Beale Ewell", her aunt (1917); "John Smith Magruder Ewell", her father (1919); and "Dr. Jesse Ewell", brother, in whose heart and brain this Society was conceived, (1921).

Alice Maude Ewell loved writing. It was for her a means of self expression. Through the years she contributed to a number of magazines; and in 1931 she published "A Virginia Scene", a charming story of life in old Prince William County, that she knew and loved so dearly.

Her written words, words of inspiration and of hope remain as an elegy, prophetic and appropriate in application to their author, as to those of whom she then spoke, (1925):

"And there are others too most dear—our own
Who from these meetings, year by year have gone;
Past from our sight, and still we feel them here,
An inspiration ever present—near.
And in the years to come their memory
Will bid us nobly live and fearless die."

Genealogy: Alice Maude Ewell was the daughter of John Smith Magruder Ewell and Alice Jane Tyler; grand-daughter of Dr. Jessie Ewell and Ellen MacGregor; great-granddaughter of John Smith Magruder and Eleanor (Hall) Clark; great-great-granddaughter of Nathaniel Magruder and Margaret Magruder; great-great-great-granddaughter of John Magruder and Susanna Smith; great-great-great-great-granddaughter of Samuel Magruder and Sarah Beall; and great-great-great-great-great-granddaughter of Alexander Magruder the Immigrant.

MRS. ANNIE LEWIS BIRCKHEAD GARTH

By Her Son

CHARLIE LEWIS GARTH

Mrs. Annie Birkhead Garth, daughter of Dr. Francis E. Birkhead and Cornelia M. Graves, was born at "Morven", Proffit, Albemarle County, Va., on Feb. 9, 1864. She became a member of "Buck Mountain" Episcopal Church early in life and was a regular attendant. She spent her early part of life at home, and attended private school. One of her best loved sports was horseback riding, this she enjoyed very much, and at one time was thought to be one of the fastest and best riders in this section.

In her late twenties she married Charles Pendleton Garth of "Walnut Hill", Stony Point, Va. After moving about quite a few times they purchased a farm in Proffit which they named "The Pines" and there make their home. Of this union there were seven children, of which five survive as follows: Frances Walker (Garth) Yarrington, Robert Bowie, Charlie Lewis, Thomas Lea, and Holland Birkhead. The two oldest who died were Edward B. and Cornelia G.

Charles P. Garth died on September 5, 1942 at "The Pines" after being paralyzed for fourteen years. His widow, Annie Birkhead Garth, died a few years later, on January 24, 1945, after a long illness. They were both buried in the family cemetery at "Morven".

Genealogy: Annie Birkhead Garth was the daughter of Cornelia Rachel Magruder Graves and Dr. Francis Edward Birkhead; granddaughter of Mildred Leed Thrift and Thomas Wesley Graves; great-granddaughter of Rachel Magruder and Robert Thrift; great-great-granddaughter of James Magruder and Mary Bowie; great-great-great-granddaughter of Ninian Magruder and Elizabeth Brewer; great-great-great-great-granddaughter of Samuel Magruder and Sarah Beall; and great-great-great-great-great-granddaughter of Alexander Magruder, Immigrant.

LUCY ANN GILMER MAGRUDER TAYLOR

By HENRY MAGRUDER TAYLOR

Lucy Ann Gilmer Magruder, the daughter of Sarah Minor and Henry Minor Magruder, was born at "Ridgway", Albemarle County, Virginia on February 16, 1871. "Ridgway" was the home of her grandmother Mrs. Benjamin Franklin Minor who died when Lucy was about twelve years old, and then her parents moved to the adjoining farm, "Edgmont" which had been willed to Mrs. Magruder by her grandmother Mrs. John Gilmer.

Lucy Magruder grew to young girlhood on this large farm which is located six miles north of Charlottesville on the old Washington road. She enjoyed all the pleasures which country life at that time afforded. There were many guests coming and going since her father was a leader in applying new methods of farming, and friends and relatives came to discuss agricultural problems with him or to visit his hospitable home. Lucy and her brother Frank and her two younger sisters received their education from their father and mother, from governesses at home, and from small private neighborhood schools.

On a visit to cousins in Richmond when about eighteen, Lucy met Garland Burnley Taylor. Some months later they became engaged and were married on October 31, 1889 at "Edgmont" by the rector of Christ Episcopal Church of Charlottesville. The young couple lived at the home of Garland's father, George Keith Taylor, in Richmond on Church Hill near old St. John's Church until their home was built in a new suburb of the city, called Barton Heights. This was a new community but it grew rapidly and they soon had many young friends living around them. They both were very active in organizing and in erecting the Church of the Epiphany, and were devoted members all of their lives.

Lucy was quiet and retiring but she won the admiration of all who knew her, because of her strong character and devotion to her church, family and friends. She saw through pretense and insincerity and had a keen sense of humor. In spite of her reserve, she took a deep interest in world affairs. She read widely and kept abreast of public affairs. While she did not work for woman's suffrage, when women were given the right to vote, she considered voting a duty and always cast her ballot from the first opportunity to the end of her life.

Duty to her family was her first care and she gave herself unstintedly in making a real home for her husband and five children. After her children grew up she took an active part in church work, especially in the activities of the Daughters of the King and the Woman's Auxiliary. She was a member of the Mothers Club, which was a forerunner of the present Parent-Teacher Association, and she belonged to the Barton Heights Women's Club.

She had a deep and abiding love for her country home "Edgmont" and always returned each summer for a visit to her mother and sister who continued to live there. Her flower garden was one of her greatest delights, and she was most successful in growing to perfection a large variety of flowers which she enjoyed giving to her children and friends.

Her influence was far greater than seems possible for one who led such a quiet life. She had integrity and high ideals of a woman's duty to which she held unswervingly without compromise. She had a keen and active mind, and she read and studied all of her life so that she was unusually well informed on many subjects.

The latter years of her life was darkened by ill health, accompanied by great suffering. The Second World War, which she thought was evil, unnecessary and foolish, caused her great sorrow when two sons and two grandsons went away to join the armed forces. Her sons returned safely but her oldest grandson, Garland Burnley Taylor, named for his grandfather who died in 1933, was killed in the Battle of Huertzen Forest in Germany at the age of 22.

Lucy Magruder Taylor died on December 13, 1945. She is survived by five children: Henry Magruder, Franklin Minor, Lucy Ann Gilmer, George Keith and Maria Louisa (Mrs. Calvert Grey Smith), and ten grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Genealogy: Lucy Ann Gilmer Magruder was the daughter of Henry Minor Magruder and Sarah Gilmer Minor; granddaughter of Benjamin Henry Magruder, and Maria Louisa Minor; great-granddaughter of John Bowie Magruder and Sarah B. Jones; great-great-granddaughter of James Magruder, Jr., and Mary Bowie; great-great-great-granddaughter of Ninian Magruder and Elizabeth Brewer; great-great-great-great-granddaughter of Samuel Magruder and Sarah Beall; and great-great-great-great-granddaughter of Alexander Magruder, Immigrant.

THOMAS FRANKLIN MALONE

Thomas Franklin Malone, son of Robert Hardin Malone and Sarah Catherine Magruder, was born December 22, 1924 and died while in the Naval Service at Naval Hospital in New Orleans, Louisiana, March 19, 1944.

He was employed in Macon, Georgia, with the Central of Georgia Railway during his senior year at Lanier High School. He entered Georgia Tech at Atlanta in September 1942, and volunteered for the Navy on his 18th birthday in December 1942, while a student and was immediately transferred to the V-12 program at that Institution. In November 1942 he was transferred to Howard College, Birmingham, Alabama, and was scheduled to enter Columbia College in New York City in June 1944 to be commissioned as an Ensign in the Navy. He had made honor roll in his studies each month.

He was taken ill with a blood disease, acute lymphatic leukemia, and was transferred to Naval Base Hospital in New Orleans, where he passed away on March 19, 1944. Funeral services were held in Macon, Georgia, March 22, with interment at Riverside Cemetery.

SECOND LIEUTENANT GARLAND MCGREGOR, JR.

By His Mother

MRS. GARLAND MCGREGOR, SR.

Second Lieutenant Garland McGregor, Jr., was killed in Action over England February 23, 1945. He was born in Florence, South Carolina, August 24, 1924; graduated from Greenville, South Carolina, High School in June 1941, and entered Clemson College, Clemson, South Carolina to pursue the study of Chemical Engineering in September of the same year; enlisted in the Army Air Corps in December, 1942, and was called to active service in February 1943.

General H. H. Arnold, Commanding General, Army Air Forces, wrote: "It has come to my notice that Lieutenant McGregor enthusiastically applied himself to the aviation cadet training courses and graduated with a fine record from the Advanced Flying School at Napier Field. Loyal and courageous, he willingly accepted difficult assignments and always could be relied upon to fulfill them to the best of his ability. He was in every respect a credit to the Army Air Forces, and we feel that his passing is a genuine loss to the Service."

Garland McGregor served in the European Theater of the War and was awarded the Purple Heart. He was the son of Garland McGregor and Mary McPhail Davis, of Greenville, South Carolina.

GARLAND BURNLEY TAYLOR

Staff Sergeant Garland Burnley Taylor, son of Franklin Minor Taylor and Alice Poindexter Peyton, was born July 12, 1922 in Albemarle County, Virginia. He attended schools in Knoxville, Tennessee; Little Rock, Arkansas, and at Orange, Virginia, and was in his fourth year at George Washington University, Washington, D. C., when he enlisted in the army in December 1942. After training at Fort George C. Meade, Fort McCellan, Alabama, and Fort Benning, Georgia, he went overseas as an infantry replacement for the Eighth Division. He joined this division in France in June 1944, and took part in the campaign that liberated the northwest portion of France. He was promoted from private to staff sergeant on the field and was soon after wounded in an attack on the German positions at Brest. After two months of hospitalization in England he rejoined his outfit in Belgium, and on November 29, 1944 was killed in action at Huertzen Forest in Germany.

Sergeant Taylor was the grandson of our late member Lucy Ann Gilmer Magruder and Garland Burnley Taylor, and a nephew of Henry Magruder Taylor.

Note: The Historian has just learned of Sergeant Taylor's death (April, 1947), therefore his name is not on the Tablet.

ARCHIBALD MAGRUDER, KENTUCKY PIONEER

By

SISTER PHILLIPPA HENDERSON and MRS. ROBERT ZIMMERMANN

Sponsored by the Kentucky Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, the grave of Archibald Magruder in Bullitt County, Kentucky, was officially marked as that of a Soldier of the American Revolution, on Independence Day, July 4, 1946.

Archibald Magruder a great-great-grandson of Alexander, the Maryland Immigrant, and his wife, Margaret Braithwaite, was born in Frederick County, (afterwards Montgomery), Maryland, April 11, 1751; his name appears on the tablet placed in the Courthouse at Rockville, Maryland, by the American Clan Gregor Society, on July 4, 1926, to the memory of thirty-one descendants of Alexander Magruder, all having his surname, who were soldiers from Montgomery County in the Revolution. Archibald served as a private in the fourth Company of the 29th Battalion of Montgomery County Militia, and subscribed to the "Patriots' Oath", in 1779.

After his service as a soldier he married Cassandra Offutt, of Maryland, and emigrated to Nelson County, Kentucky, several years before it became a state. He acquired a plantation in a remote part of the county, which later was included in Bullitt County. His chosen home was located in the foothills of "the Knobs", where there were few settlers, and wild game was plentiful. It is said that Archibald gave as a reason for his selection of this isolated neighborhood that he wanted to be where the deer and wild turkeys were free and where he would not be crowded by many people. Today the Bernheim Game Reserve, a state park, adjoins the Magruder family burial ground, and deer, turkeys and other wild game roam there unmolested.

died July 1, 1842

CASSANDRA MAGRUDER
Wife of Archibald Magruder born November 23, 1760
died April 23, 1835

The home that Archibald built of logs cut from the surrounding forest has long since disappeared, but still standing are several magnificent silver-leaf poplars which Archibald planted on the once spacious lawn. Just outside the burial ground's boundaries are a number of unmarked graves supposed to be those of the "family negroes." The headstones marking the graves of Archibald (d. July 1, 1842), and his wife (d. 1835), are of massive Kentucky limestone, still in good condition after more than a century of storm, heat and cold.

Acting as a "guard of honor" at the official marking of the grave were eleven descendants of Archibald, who saw service in World War II, all of them on the Honor Roll of the American Clan Gregor Society: Lieut.-Col. James William Ewing, Lieut.-Col. Marion Milton Magruder, Major Eugene R. Magruder, Lieut. Gilbert Masden, Sergeant Emory B. Samuels, A/S Mathis W. Blackstock, Tech. 5/c Samuel O. Barrall, Corp. Edwin S. Hibbs, Sergeant William B. Masden, Capt. John B. Martin, and Second Lieut. Charles E. Magruder.

Among those present were Frank Magruder, 82, a grandson of Archibald, and James E. Magruder, a great-grandson, with his daughter, granddaughter, and a great-great-grandson.

A re-union of Archibald's descendants on July 4, 1947, at Shepherdsville, Kentucky, is planned by those who were gathered at the grave, and it is expected a large attendance may be had, not only from a number of Kentucky Counties, but also from several states, Tennessee, Missouri, Minnesota, Illinois, the District of Columbia, etc., as well as from far-away Florida, Texas, Idaho and Massachusetts.

COAT OF ARMS OF THE MACGREGOR

By

MRS. O. O. VAN DEN BERG

The Coat of Arms recently made available to members of the American Clan Gregor Society is, according to Lady Amelia Georgianna Murray MacGregor, the same as is used by The MacGregor, Sir Malcolm MacGregor, Baronet, who by his gracious consent is Hereditary Chieftain of the American Clan Gregor Society, and is therefore the Coat of Arms of all who are of MacGregor lineage.

After checking the data in the report of Mrs. Catherine Sloane O'Loughlin this design was submitted to the Chieftain and others, and decided upon as fitting for use by the American Clan Gregor Society.

The outline of this particular Coat of Arms was found among papers of our late Chancellor, Alexander Muncaster, which he gave to your Registrar a few months before his death which occurred on December 4, 1942. A few of the comments by those who availed themselves of one of the first fifty copies of the Coat of Arms read thus: Mrs. Winifred D. Brown whose order was number one, very proud to be able to claim the MacGregor line as my own; Mrs. Eugenia Farr Rees, am delighted to have it; Mrs. Fannie Magruder Eaton, the Coat of Arms is lovely; Mrs. Elizabeth Magruder Disharoon, very much pleased with it; Thomas G. Magruder, it is very lovely; Dr. Charles Lowe Magruder, most appreciated; Mrs. Helen M. Bethel, we appreciate this work made possible by the Clan; Miss Mary Adalaide Jenkins, appreciate . . . your giving me this privilege of subscribing; Mrs. Marion Myrl Harrison, it is beautiful; W. Lloyd Wolfe, very much pleased with it; Miriam M. Drane, M. D., delighted and very proud; Rev. Daniel Randall Magruder, acknowledge . . . the handsome Arms; William Marion Magruder, highly pleased; Egbert Watson Magruder, the prettiest one I ever saw; Lauch Magruder, Please tell me where I can get the History on the Coat of Arms?

Because of this request of Mr. Magruder, and as information for the many members who have come into Clanship since 1938 in which Year Book appears an article on the Coat of Arms, we are reprinting this article herewith:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON COAT OF ARMS

MRS. CATHERINE A. (SLOANE) O'LOUGHLIN, Baltimore, Md.

The question was raised at the last meeting as to which version of the arms we should use, and upon inquiring from an authority on the subject I was told that the arms of MacGregor as shown in Burke's Peerage are ours to use "by right of inheritance."

Some of the members suggested our using the coat of arms without the supporters (the deer and unicorn), but I have found that this part of the arms has a definite significance and should, therefore, be used by all of us. I am attaching a list of the symbols and their definitions, which bears this out.

Another question raised was whether the name Magruder or MacGregor should be shown on the arms. I was told that the family name of Magruder is the correct one to use, although if one prefers to show the original name MacGregor it would not be incorrect—merely a matter of preference.

DEFINITION OF SYMBOLS

MAGRUDER (MacGregor): The descendants of Gregor, the son of Alpin, King of Scotland. A family of great antiquity and of distinguished ancestors.

ARMS: Argent, an oak tree eradicated, in bend sinister proper, surmounted by a sword in bend, azure, supporting on its point, in the dexter canton an antique crown gules.

CREST: A lion's head erased, crowned with an antique crown proper.

SUPPORTERS: Dexter: a unicorn, argent, crowned and horned, Or, (denoting the Royal descent); Sinister; a deer proper, tyned, azure.

MOTTO: Srioghail-mo-dhream (Royal is my race).

MOTTO: Ard-choille (The woody height).

ARGENT (Silver). Signified Peace and Sincerity.

TREES are emblems of stately beauty.

THE SWORD. Guillim remarks, is a weapon fitted for execution and justice, and he holds that it is the true emblem of military honor, and should incite the bearer to a just and generous pursuit of honor and virtue in warlike deeds.

AZURE (Blue). Signified Loyalty and Truth. It was the color devoted to the Virgin by the Roman Church.

A CROWN is invariably so placed with a symbolic intent, which may either have reference to the acquisition of some earthly crown, or to the hope of inheriting one in a brighter and happier world.

LION. Guillim, speaking of the lion, says, "It is the lively image of a good soldier, who must be valiant of courage, strong of body, politic in council, and a foe to fear."

THE UNICORN is one of the heraldic fabulous beasts. It was famous for its virtue, courage, and strength, and that its horn was supposed to be the most powerful antidote against poison. It signified extreme courage.

OR (GOLD). Denotes Generosity and Elevation of Mind.

THE DEER. Guillim and Upton state, "This animal is symbolical either of one skillful in music and a lover of harmony, or of one that is politic and well foresees his times and opportunities; or again, of one who is unwilling to assail the enemy rashly, but rather desirous to stand on his own ground honestly than to annoy another wrongfully. They signify Policy, Peace, and Harmony.

THE MACGREGOR ARMS

NOTES FROM BRITISH SOURCES

Sir Malcolm MacGregor, Lord of Glenurchy, who died about 1113, was succeeded by his son Malcolm who was a man of incredible strength of body. Being of the King's retinue at a certain hunting party when his Majesty having attacked a wild boar or some other dangerous animal, was in danger of his life, Sir Malcolm asked his Majesty's permission to encounter the animal. The King answered, "In," or "e'en do, bait spair nocht." Sir Malcolm is said to have torn up a young oak by the root and with it kept the animal at bay until he could run it through with his sword.

In honor of the occasion his Majesty raised Sir Malcolm to the peerage by the title of Lord MacGregor, and gave to him "et haeredibus masculis" an oak in place of the fir-tree which the family had formerly carried. The History of Clan Gregor by the Lady Amelia Georgiana Murray MacGregor to whom we are indebted for much of the information in this article, gives Sir Malcolm MacGregor's arms as:

Argent, a sword in bend azure and an oak tree eradicate, in bend sinister proper; in chief a crown gules. Crest, a lion's head crowned with an antique crown, with points. Motto: In do, bait spair nocht. Supporters: on the dexter an unicorn argent crowned, horned or, and on the sinister a deer proper tyn'd azure.

The Clan Gregor motto is also given as "'S Rioghail mo dhream"—my tribe is royal.

The MS No. 1371 of the Harlein Collection, in the British Museum, entitled "Scotica Nobilitas" 1589, contains among others, "MacGregoyre." The "Atchievement" of MacGregoyre is:

Argent, a pine tree eradicate in bend sinister proper, surmounted of a sword in bend azure, hilted gules: in Chief an antique crown with points gules; Crest a lion's head erased proper, langued gules and crowned or.

Workman's MS (1623) has the oak.

In The Scotch Tartans, published in Edinburgh, the MacGregor badge is the pine tree and the slogan is ard choille.

Again quoting Miss MacGregor, "There is a tradition that the pine tree was the original charge, but after the above related prowess of Sir Malcolm it was changed for the oak tree, which consequently pertained to Sir Malcolm and his male descendants. Chiefs of Highland Clans have the right to bear supporters."

Supporters, which were originally ornaments, are often personal rather than hereditary, being changed generation by generation. Modern custom gives them to peers, Knights of the Garter, the Thistle, and St. Patrick, and to knights who are Grand Commanders of other orders. In England, a few old families still assert their right by hereditary prescription to their use.

The Scottish unicorn was added to the English arms by James I at his succession in 1603, and since that time "the lion and the unicorn" have been the English royal supporters.

The actual date when arms were first given or first used is unknown. It was not until the reign of King William the Lion, 1165-1214, that arms were first borne in Scotland.—EDITOR.

There are still a few of the first fifty of the original issue which have the signature of the artists and when these are disposed of there will be another lot of 25 available. The price will be uniform. Send orders with check for $18.00 to Mr. Herbert T. Magruder, 407 Henderson Avenue, State Island 10, New York.

In his Annual Address as Chieftain of the American Clan Gregor Society, Egbert Watson Magruder recites his research on the MacGregor Coat of Arms. This address will be found in the Year Book for 1933, on page 35.

RESEARCH PERTAINING TO THE BEALL PORTRAIT

By

REGINA MAGRUDER HILL, Historian

This Research was undertaken in order to clarify an evident mistake as to the identity of the Portrait which appears on Page 54 of the 1945 Year Book, Copyrighted 1945, and reported to be that of Colonel Ninian Beall.

This Portrait was contributed in good faith by the writer, George Magruder Battey, III, in the footnote to his article on page 53.

RESEARCH DATA

FROM: "The Brooke Family of Whitchurch" by Thomas Willing Balch, 1899, pp. 35 and 36; and Letters written to me by Mrs. Janie Martin West (Mrs. E. S.), 202 S. 16th Avenue, Yakima, Washington, and filed in the Archives of the American Clan Gregor Society.

Note by Compiler: *This Eleanor Ann Washington is the painter who copied the miniatures of Thomas Beall of George, Esq., and his wife, Nancy Ann Orme, which were originally sat for in 1801.

FROM: "Early Days in Washington," by Sally Somervell Mackall, Copyright, 1899. On page 50 of this book are copies of portraits labeled as follows: "Ninian Beall" "Mrs. Ninian Beall".

On page 61 of the above book is a portrait of Mrs. George C. Washington, (Ann Ridgely Beall), by her daughter, Eleanor Ann.

This book goes on: "George C. Washington's daughter, Eleanor Ann, was the first to be laid to rest in this lot (Oak Hill Cemetery). She lies where she was want to sketch. Her miniatures of her mother, and of Ninian Beall and his wife, are now in the possession of Mr. Thomas Harrison."

NOTE from MRS. WEST: "She (Sally Somervell Mackall) was very deaf and Aunt Virginia Harrison was also deaf, therefore there was a misunderstanding as to who the portraits were of. Aunt Virginia Harrison was much upset on her getting it wrong. I have heard her tell it often."

NOTE by Compiler: This picture entitled "Ninian Beall" is the same one which is in the 1945 American Clan Gregor Year Book, and the same one that also is in the following book with the captions given as follows:

FROM: "Ancestral Records and Portraits, Compiled from the Archives of the Colonial Dames of America" Vol. 2, page 434:

"Portrait of Thomas Beall of George Esq., from a miniature taken in 1801."

"Portrait of Ann Orme, wife of Thomas Beall of George, Esq., from a Miniature taken in 1801."

NOTE by Compiler: This same portrait is on page 161 of Vol. 42-43 of the "Records of the Columbia Historical Society of Washington, D. C., 1940-1941", in the article by George Magruder Battey III, and is the one used in the 1945 Year Book of the American Clan Gregor Society.

The picture which is in the 1945 Year Book of the Clan could not possibly be that of Colonel Ninian Beall, as he died in 1717, and the miniature was not made until 1801.

The picture could not possibly be of George Beall, son of Colonel Ninian Beall, as he died in 1790, and the miniature was not made until 1801.

According to the dates given in the Genealogical line and from the notes from the letter from Mrs. Janie Martin West, it could be of Thomas Beall of George Esq., grandson of Colonel Ninian Beall, as he did not die until 1819, at the age of 71. As the miniature was made in 1801, he would have been 53 when it was done, which is possible and probable.

Eleanor Ann Washington could not possibly have done a portrait of Colonel Ninian Beall or of her grandfather, Thomas Beall of George, Esq., as she was not born until 1822, long after both of them were dead. But, she evidently copied the miniatures which were made in 1801, and the information given shows proof of this fact.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION FROM LETTERS OF ##### MRS. JANIE MARTIN WEST

"Mary Ann Washington Keyser of Baltimore, Maryland, daughter of Lewis William Washington and his wife, Mary Barroll, who wrote the history in "Ancestral Portraits and Records" under the head of Washington, and has the pictures shown therein, grew up with my grandmother and her brothers and sisters and wrote to my great uncle, Mr. Thomas Harrison, on December 20, 1912—"When the Colonial Dames published their records I prepared my own papers for the two volumes I am sending you . . . The first 20 pages of Vol. II are under the head of Washington . . . The Beall miniatures are from the originals in my possession and belonging to my half-brother who loaned them to me some twenty years ago. He is a single man."

"I have the pictures Eleanor Washington painted and on the back is pasted a slip in my great Uncle Thomas Harrison's handwriting, (died 1925, age 98) is written 'Thomas Beall of George', 'Mrs. Thomas Beall of George'. Thomas Harrison was a brother of Aunt Virginia.

"George Corbin Washington, born 1789, died 1854, married second Ann T. Peter who died February 3, 1861. Issue by the first wife, Eliza Ridgely Beall, seven children, only one surviving, Lewis William Washington, born Nov. 30, 1812, died at *Beall Air, October 1, 1871. Eleanor Ann Washington the painter, was the daughter of the second wife, Ann T. Peter. She was born October 31, 1822 and died April 13, 1849."

*NOTE by Compiler: "Beall Air", the sixth oldest Washington home still standing (April 1938) in Jefferson County, West Virginia, was the home of a much later date of Colonel Lewis Washington. He was the son of George Corbin Washington of Georgetown, D. C., himself a son of General Washington's niece, Jenny, (and William Augustine Washington.) From: National Historic Magazine, Daughters of the American Revolution, April, 1938.

I wish to thank Mrs. West for the valuable help she has given me in preparing this article.

NOTE by the Historian: In a letter to me from Mrs. De Courcy W. Thom (Mary Washington), dated April 3, 1947, daughter of Mrs. Mary Ann Washington Keyser mentioned in the above article occurs the following:

"These miniatures belonged to my mother, Mrs. Keyser, and at her death I inherited them. On the back of his is written 'Thomas Beall of Geo. Taken in 1801, aged 53' and on hers is written 'Anne Beall, wife of Thomas Beall of Geo. Taken in 1801, aged 49.' The writing is old and not my Mothers, and I do not recognize it . . . Dr. Hall Pleasants has identified these miniatures as by Robert Field."

EDWARD BOTELER PASSANO

AUGUST 11, 1872-JUNE 13, 1946

By ROBERT S. GILL, *President of the Williams & Wilkins Co.**

As the swift shadow of a sudden storm overspreads a cloudless sky, death came to Edward B. Passano in the declining afternoon of a summer day. With soundless step, almost wholly without warning, the Fourth Horseman came, and struck, and passed on. To us who had seen and talked with him that morning, he seemed unusually well and even light of heart. Yet before the sun sank, he had passed beyond human recall.

There is shock and terror in death so unannounced. Yet this is the way Edward Passano would have chosen for his passing. Long months of lingering helplessness, with increasing loss of independence, would surely have galled him sorely. To be in harness, to live alertly and with full command up to his last day, almost to his last moment—that, could he have known in advance, would have gratified his sense of fitness.

Men have lived longer than his three score and thirteen, but we can say this was a long life; and surely a useful life, a life in which was accomplished far more than falls to the lives of men less determined, less diligent, less capable; an honorable life and one that was much honored by the recognition of his fellows. Can we say then that all is well? Not quite. For there was still eagerness in him, the will to do and the competence to do. He still loved life, still greeted it in all its complexities, still smiled on it. He was too young to die.

But is there not a very real sense in which he has not died? For there is a deathlessness in strong men. Their hands have touched many things and molded them—the lives of men and women, the institution of ways of thinking and doing and living. Their sculptured impress is indelible and it remains, well and clearly defined, not because someone wills it so, but because it is too firm to perish.

So it is with Edward Passano. We shall miss his bodily presence. But we shall not—for we cannot—miss the abiding signs and significances of his purposeful will, his unyielding integrity, his strong sense of justice. The good that he did can neither be interred with the dead nor ignored by the living.

Edward B. Passano was born in Baltimore on August 11, 1872. He received his formal education in Baltimore public schools and took an engineering course at Lehigh University, a course interrupted by economic considerations before it could be completed.

He emerged into business life in the uncertain depression years of the early 'nineties, when a place in the economic structure was hard to find. He spent a few brief years in various attempts and found his niche finally in 1897, when he was employed as salesman by a rather small commercial printing concern known as Williams and Wilkins Company, from the names of production engineering to printing methods. He was greatly admired of Williams & Wilkins Co., medical publishers and Waverly Press, Inc., printers to the world of science—which today does an annual business in excess of $2,000,000. That development has been the life work of Mr. Passano, his personal achievement.

Shortly after he assumed this connection, Mr. Wilkins left to study abroad and Mr. Williams to accept a business offer in New York. Mr. Passano, though he did not then own any part of the Company, took charge of its affairs and promptly demonstrated his administrative ability by moving the business from a loss of several thousand dollars a year into a profit. Yet the enterprise needed new capital and Mr. Passano persuaded the stockholders to advance it.

A new crisis faced the growing business when the Baltimore fire of 1904 wiped out the plant. This not only entailed the usual disruption attendant on such an event, but Mr. Wilkins, at that time the majority stockholder, was determined to liquidate the enterprise. Mr. Passano averted the threat by persuading the minority stockholders, the brothers Garrett, to purchase Mr. Wilkins' interest. A few years later, he bought out the Garretts and became sole proprietor.

The fire was also the stimulus that started the business on a new trend. Mr. Passano moved the plant uptown and determined to devote it to the printing of the material of science. In 1909, this led to the first publishing venture, a journal in the field of pharmacology, of which he assumed the hazards of publication, on the suggestion of Dr. John J. Abel of the Johns Hopkins Medical School.

At about this time also, Mr. Passano began to apply the principles of production engineering to the printing plant, an audacious undertaking in those days. Morris Llewellyn Cooke, a classmate of his at Lehigh and a pupil of the famous Frederick W. Taylor was called in to organize and incorporate a system of scientific management. The equally famous H. L. Gantt was to consult and advise once weekly, and the whole venture was under the supervision of Mr. Taylor. While this particular experiment was not an unqualified success, it did not deter Mr. Passano from further pursuit of the same end, under his own guidance; and one of his outstanding achievements has undoubtedly been in the field of application of the principles of production engineering to printing methods. He was greatly admired of Mr. Gantt who, during World War I, assigned him the task of reducing the time of "turn-around" of vessels in Baltimore harbor, on behalf of the Shipping Board and Emergency Fleet Corporation.

Several scientific journals were added to the publication ventures in the decade following 1910 and in 1920 book publications began. In 1925, Mr. Passano felt that the publishing business would be better served by establishment of a separate corporation for the purpose, and the present dual organization is the result. In 1932, the publishing business was further augmented by the purchase and absorption of William Wood and Company of New York, a concern which dated back to 1805.

The Passano Foundation is a recent development, established in 1943 for the purpose of fostering research in the medical sciences and supported by annual contributions from the business rather than by endowment. The Foundation makes an annual award of $5000.00 for outstanding achievement in clinical research. Thus far, two such awards have been made: in 1945 to Dr. Edwin J. Cohn, of Harvard; in 1946, to Dr. Ernest W. Goodpasture, of Vanderbilt University. Mr. Passano presented these awards in person, during suitable ceremonies in Baltimore.

Mr. Passano exercised a wide influence on the printing industry in Baltimore, aside from his own business. He was a member-at-large of the United Typothetae of America before that organization had a local chapter in Baltimore and served that chapter wisely and well for many years after its formation, though he never accepted office in it. He, with other leaders in the industry, founded and procured equipment for the Ottmar Mergenthaler School of Printing and welded it firmly into the public school system of Baltimore. Virtually single-handed, he brought about the formation of the American Guild of the Printing Industry, designed to bring employer and employee together around the council-table, and, as well, to provide certain insurance and welfare benefits.

Mr. Passano's services to the community were not confined to his own industry. His advice was sought and freely given in committee work for such matters as vocational education in the public schools of Baltimore or the organization plans of the Maryland Tuberculosis Association. He was founder and for many years president of the Baltimore County Public Health Association, where he brought order to a chaotic situation in the face of powerful opposition. He was also, for many years, a vestryman of Trinity Episcopal Church, Towson. He was much interested in the University Club, of which he was vice-president at the time of his death, and almost his last act was to work out a plan of fiscal reorganization for the Club and put into successful execution—a task which was undertaken as necessary to save that useful institution to the cultural life of Baltimore.

Mr. Passano's personal interests covered a wide range, for he had the inquiring mind and a high appreciation of the arts. Most outstanding perhaps was his interest in clocks, of which he was a student and collector, and his interest in fine music. He was fond of opera well-presented and he was a box-holder for the Baltimore Symphony as well as for Baltimore performances of out-of-town orchestras. He loved to entertain and not the least of his accomplishments was that of being a most gracious host. His summer home at Ocean City was, indeed, seldom without guests, in residence or in immediate prospect.

He was given the honor of being elected an honorary life-member of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, an honor which he greatly cherished. He was also fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science. He was a member—and Governor for 1939-40—of the Society of Colonial Wars in Maryland. Other memberships, as recorded in Who's Who, include the Sons of the Revolution, American Clan Gregor, Delta Phi, University Club, Engineers' Club, Merchants' Club, and Elkridge Country Club. He was a charter member of the American Clan Gregor Society, No. 31c.

Mr. Passano was married on October 25, 1900, at Trinity Church, Towson, to Eleanor Phillips Issac, who survives him. He is also survived by two sons, William Moore Passano and Edward Magruder Passano, both of whom are actively associated in administrative capacities in the business he founded; and by three grandchildren, William Moore Passano, Jr., Susan Kemp Passano and Edward Magruder Passano, Jr.

Genealogy: Edward Boteler Passano was the son of Louis Durbin Passano and Alice Fletcher Magruder; grandson of Thomas Jefferson Magruder and Sarah Ann Peyton Boteler; great-grandson of Edward Magruder and Teresa Barron; great-great-grandson of Haswell Magruder and Charity Beall; great-great-great-grandson of Capt. Samuel Magruder, Jr., and Jane Haswell; great-great-great-great-grandson of Samuel Magruder, 2nd, and Eleanor Wade; great-great-great-great-great-grandson of Col. Samuel Magruder 1st, and Sarah Beall; and great-great-great-great-great-grandson of Alexander Magruder, Immigrant.
