Following Miss Hill's suggestion, Mr. John K. Magruder made the motion that the membership of this Committee be enlarged in order to continue the study in effect. This motion was seconded, voted on and approved.

The session re-opened at 4:45 P.M.

Mr. Hutchison gave us a report on his investigation into the micro-filming of our Records. He advised contacting Mr. Lucien Bruce, Manager, Recordak Corp., 1015 Wisconsin Ave., N.W., Washington 7, D. C. Telephone Fe 3-9300. The Chieftain thanked Mr. Hutchison for giving us this valuable information.

Miss Diedel made the motion that the following be elected to study the micro-filming of our Records: John K. Magruder, Chairman, Cornelia M. Bowie, Thomas G. Magruder, Jr., Regina M. Hill, and Harry W. Blunt. These persons were elected from the floor to serve in this capacity.

Miss Hill made her office report that will appear in full in the Year Book.

It was moved, seconded and passed that the Resolutions drawn up by Mr. Henry Magruder Taylor on the recognition of the long, Military Service of General Carter Bowie Magruder, our beloved member, be read at the present Council Meeting. These Resolutions will appear in the Year Book.

It was decided that the Resolutions on the passing of Mrs. Susie May van den Berg that were drawn up by Mr. Herbert Thomas Magruder be presented at the Business Meeting.

The Chieftain requested that the Magruder Family, his own family, including his mother, sisters and himself; be granted permission to place a bronze plaque on the frame of the painting of the "Fiery Cross" that his father, Dr. Edward May Magruder, the first Chieftain, presented to the Society many years ago. A motion was made, seconded and approved granting this request.

Dr. Roger G. Magruder, the Chieftain, took up the offer made to our Society in December 1960, by Mr. John MacGregor of Edinburgh, Scotland, Hon. Secretary of "The Clan Gregor Society" of Scotland, extending an invitation to our members to join their Society. The snag is that their rules have been practically unchanged since 1822, and many of our members—especially those on the maternal side—could only be admitted as Honorary Members. Dr. Magruder, while touring Scotland this summer, met Mr. John MacGregor and learned that Commander Findanus MacGregor of Cardney, the President is in the process of drawing up a new set of Rules, in which the stringent rules as to surname will be relaxed. A lengthy discussion followed, after which it was concluded that we have a friendly interest and feel honored that we have been asked to join "The Clan Gregor Society." In conclusion, any further decisions in regard to this matter, are left up to the Chieftain.

The Chieftain brought up the question of our joining "The National Trust For Scotland;" as a Society, or as individuals. The annual dues for a Society are 2 pounds, 2 shillings; for individuals, 10 s. annually. Miss C. Virginia Diedel made the motion that the Council recommend that the Clan Gregor Society join "The National Trust For Scotland" and "The National Trust For Historic Preservation of the United States." Funds to accomplish this were collected at the Council Meeting, and any amount in excess of the membership fees were turned over to the Endowment Fund of the Clan. Seconded by John K. Magruder, voted on and approved.

Mr. Milwit made a motion that the funds collected for the Trip To Scotland, a Scottish Venture, be kept in a separate account and relieve the Clan of all responsibility. This was seconded, voted on and approved.

Miss C. Virginia Diedel made a motion that Mr. Harry W. Blunt be authorized to open a checking account in the Suburban Trust Co., to be known as the "American Clan Gregor Society Tour," to deposit money collected to pay for the trip to the British Isles in 1962, and if the trip is canceled, to refund the money to members who have paid for said trip. This action was seconded, voted on and approved.

Miss C. Virginia Diedel made a motion that we continue to sponsor the "Grandfather Highland Games" at $25.00 per year. Seconded, voted on and approved.

Mr. Blunt made a motion that the Chieftain, the Ranking Deputy Chieftain and Mr. Henry Magruder Taylor constitute a Committee to decide where we will meet in 1962. Seconded, voted on and approved.

Mr. Hutchison stated that he will underwrite the price of a trophy to be donated by this Society to the winner of an event in the Grandfather Highland Games of 1962. The Chieftain to pick the event. Seconded, voted on and approved. The meeting adjourned at 6:25 P.M.

ADDRESS OF THE CHIEFTAIN

Roger Gregory Magruder, M.D.

Members of the American Clan Gregor Society, it is a pleasure to address you in this historical city of Annapolis. Located here are many colonial landmarks, which stand as reminders of its role in American history; the renown United States Naval Academy; and a very distinguished college, St. John's. Looking back over many years, it will be noted that quite a few of our kinsmen have had close association with one or more of these. So it would seem appropriate to have a gathering here.

The activities of the Society have been progressing, as witnessed by the reports made and others you will hear.

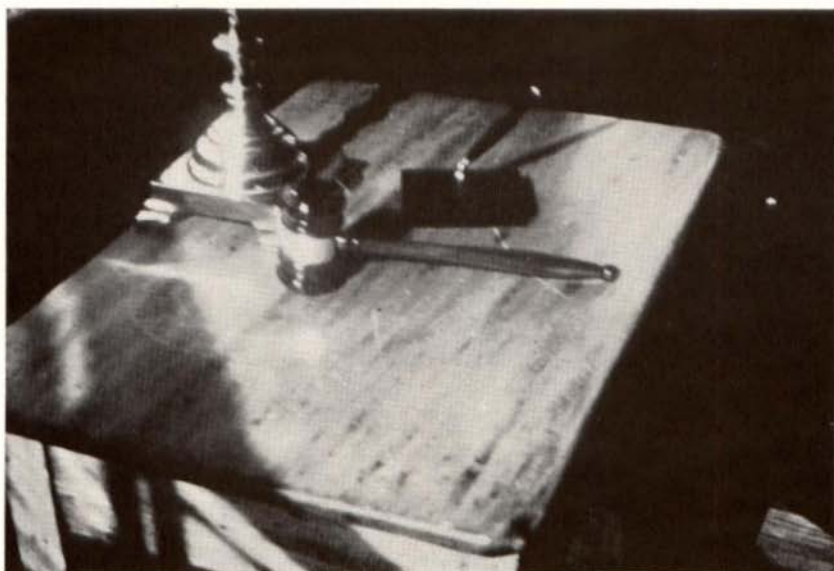

Again in the Spring of this year, at the inspiring ceremony "the kirkin' o' the tartan", held at the Cathedral church of St. Peter and St. Paul in Washington, D. C. the MacGregor tartan was presented by Mr. Harry W. Blunt, the Assistant to the Chieftain.

Last winter, in view of a depleted treasury, and with our expenses running ahead of receipts, though regrettable, it was deemed advisable to relinquish the Society headquarters in order to save this rent money. Miss Hill kept certain files, etc., she needed in her apartment. The remainder of the Society's belongings were stored in the home of Mr. Harry W. Blunt.

At the last gathering. I discussed the fact that our Year Book was deficient in certain respects, and that there was considerable room for improvement, if its standard was to be raised. A start toward this end has been made. Much more can be done. I hope all will work toward this goal. The editorial committee will have to be strict, and have to expend much work to accomplish this. Any recommendations or criticisms by this committee regarding articles for publication bear no personal animosity. However, please do not let a strict editorial committee deter anyone from submitting an article for publication. I am sure there are many with great literary talent.

Your Chieftain attended the annual picnic of the Virginia members of our Society on June 3, 1961. This was held on the lawn under the towering trees of "Ravenwood", the lovely home place of Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Taylor, near Richmond, Va. It was a great pleasure for about 50 members and guests to enjoy the hospitality of the Taylors. A sociable time was climaxed by a delicious picnic luncheon.

During a trip to Scotland this past summer, your Chieftain and his family had the pleasure of being guests for several days at "Edinchip", the most interesting family home of the Chief of Clan Gregor and Lady MacGregor of MacGregor. There, we met their fine young sons, Malcolm, about 2½ years old and Ninian, who was born June 30, 1961. Highlights of our visit included: Attendance at the traditional and colorful Lochearnhead Highland Games of which the Chief of Clan Gregor was Chieftain; a delightful party at "Edinchip"; and, entertainment by the Honorable Lady Gylla MacGregor, with an auto sightseeing trip through part of that magnificent country of the middle and western highlands. Our picnic lunch was enjoyed on the roadside near the ominous Glencoe with the mist shrouded peak,

Rosewood gavel with silver band and following notation thereon was presented to the President of the Clan Gregor Society of Scotland in July 1961:

"the Shepherd of Glencoe" standing as a sentinel nearby. A rosewood gavel* was presented to the President of the Clan Gregor Society of Scotland, Commander Findanus MacGregor, as a personal gift from your present Chieftain. On our way to Edinburgh, by way of Dunkeld, a delicious luncheon was enjoyed in the home of Commander and Mrs. MacGregor, and we were shown their lovely home "Cardney".

The American Clan Gregor Society was for a second year one of the sponsors of the Grandfather Mountain Highland Games, held annually in July at Linville, N. C. The special guest this year was Kenneth Trist Urquhart of that ilk, Younger, son of the 25th Chief of Clan Urquhart. It was estimated that about 4000 persons attended the games.

The third annual Ligonier Highland Games were held at Idlewild Park, Ligonier, Pa., near Pittsburgh on September 9, 1961. Their guest of honor was Air Commodore Aeneas Ronald Donald MacDonnell of Glengary, who is Chief of the Glengary branch of Clan Donald. While our Society was not one of the sponsors of their games, your Chieftain sent a small contribution. Officials of both of these Highland Games have signified to me their desire to have the Chief of Clan Gregor as guest of honor in the near future.

It is my understanding that there are five Highland Clans officially represented in the United States by their Clan Societies⁽¹⁾: Clan Gregor, Clan Donald, Clan MacLeod, Clan MacMillan, and Clan McGain. In addition there are many other Scottish societies. These, together with the establishment of the Highland Games held annually in several widely separated places in the United States, are ample evidence of the resurgence of the clan system in this country; a system which was destroyed in Scotland as a result of the revolution of 1745. This renaissance in the United States, though for peaceful purposes, represents a manifestation of those principles of clanship, kinship and pride of ancestry, which those of Scottish descent inherited from their forefathers. This Society, which was founded on sentiment, has survived, and carried on because of this and because of an association with the Chief's family in Scotland, and because of our projects which have evolved, and been carried through over a period of years. The American Clan Gregor Society has a warm place in its heart for the past, to which all honour is paid, but it also lives for the present and the future. Our aims are not only sentimental, but practical and worthwhile. While these latter projects are known to most of us, especially the older members, it might be worthwhile to review a number of them in order to better acquaint our more recent members.

Our Society maintains a membership file, where a member and his or her family may be readily identified. A certificate of membership is issued, which further enhances the feeling of "belonging to a group", and also allows the member to wear the clan crest with motto. Data concerning its members, honoring distinguished clan folk, recording events of the Society, and treasures pertaining to the Society are collected and preserved. An annual gathering is held. The records of this event, together with genealogical material and other pertinent articles relating to the Society and its members are published in a Year Book. This is distributed to all paying members, and copies are placed in several public libraries. Three trust funds have been instituted, namely, The Endowment Fund, Medical Scholarship Fund, and Library Fund. Their purposes are very worthwhile. It is my sincere hope that our members will recognize this more, and make regular contributions, even if only a small amount, to one or more of these. Interest in Scotland is stimulated and the fostering of even more friendly relations with our kinsmen who inhabit the "giant heather clad mountains of the Lion of the North"⁽²⁾, is sought. By so doing, in a small measure, the bond between our two countries is strengthened. Our Society, by making a small donation of money, along with other similar societies has been a sponsor of one of the annual highland games. These games are not only traditional, but a step forward in the promotion of athletic, musical, and dancing contests for all who enter. All of these projects contribute to the development of an heritage of our Society. As the future unfolds, the opportunity for other worthwhile projects will appear. It is hoped that the American Clan Gregor Society will always be alert to see and grasp these opportunities as they arise. By doing so, its history will be enriched.

REPORT OF THE EDITOR

REGINA MAGRUDER HILL

Gathering of 1961

Material for the Year Book was collected, typed, and the Minutes of the Gathering sent to the Chieftain for checking, with the other material being sent to Miss Evelina Magruder to be checked for sentence structure and for any errors to be caught and corrected before it was sent to the printer. An estimate on printing the book was secured. The completed material was sent to the printer, Cussons, May and Company, of Richmond, Virginia, on May 25, 1961; on July 3, 1961, the Galley Proof was received and sent to two members of the Editorial Committee, Miss Evelina Magruder and Mrs. Irwin L. Lummis, to be read, and returned to the printer. On August 8, the Page Proof arrived and was checked by the Editor, and the Year Book was completed and mailed out on August 30, 1961.

I want to thank Miss Magruder and Mrs. Lummis for their valuable help.

The Office has worked with Mr. Blunt and Miss Hunter, Treasurer, in checking the membership cards so that metal plates of our mailing list could be prepared for the Addressograph Machine. Mr. Blunt, Miss Hunter and I, each have a set of these cards.

It is most important to report any change of address to the Clan Office at 8000 Westover Rd., Bethesda 14, Md. It is the only way that the mailing list can be kept up to date and to avoid unnecessary effort and expense

RESEARCH COMMITTEE

REGINA MAGRUDER HILL, Director

The Director has made two trips to Annapolis on research work, and has spent many hours at the National Archives and at the D.A.R. Library, checking and proving lines for admission to the Clan. Also time has been spent in checking records on file in the Clan Office for this purpose, and in telephone conversations with Mr. Thomas G. Magruder, Jr., on various lines.

REPORT OF THE MEMORIAL TABLETS
AND MARKERS COMMITTEEMRS. JOHN (DOROTHY) McDONALD, Chairman

In February 1961, our Chieftain, Dr. Roger Gregory Magruder, appointed the following to serve on the Memorial Tablets and Markers Committee:

Mrs. John G. McDonald, Chairman

Miss Regina M. Hill

Miss Amy Belle Hunter

Dr. Roger Gregory Magruder

The purpose of the Committee for 1961 was to replace the Pine Tree which was dedicated on October 20, 1934, on St. John's College Campus in memory of Judge Daniel Randall Magruder, Court of Appeals, 1881. The tree was named "The Daniel Randall Magruder Pine" and the hope was expressed at the dedication that the little pine would grow to the size of some of the large and ancient trees now on the campus.

Since the little pine tree did not survive as anticipated, the Committee on February 12, 1961, asked Mr. Richard D. Weigle, President, St. John's College, for permission for the American Clan Gregor Society to replace the tree and extended an invitation to him to accept the tree on behalf of the College at the dedication service on October 21, 1961, at 3:30 P. M. The President graciously replied in the affirmative.

Two of the committee, Miss Hill and Mrs. McDonald, together with Mrs. William Randolph Talbott and Mrs. James Murdock, members of the Clan, went to Annapolis on April 6, 1961, to consult with the Business Manager of the College as to a suitable location for the tree.

After considerable correspondence and arrangements a 6 foot Scotch pine was ordered to be planted on the campus of St. John's College.

The Committee wishes to express their thanks and deep appreciation to Mr. Harry Blunt who so kindly offered to have the bronze plaque made and installed at the foot of the tree. The following notation appears on the bronze plaque:

In Memory ofJudge Daniel Randall MagruderCourt of Appeals 1881Placed byAmerican Clan Gregor SocietyOctober 21, 1961.

Our beloved Chaplain, Rev. Daniel Randall Magruder and our past Chieftain, is the son of Judge Daniel Randall Magruder.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE
FEASIBILITY OF WRITING A 50 YEAR HISTORY
OF THE MAGRUDER FAMILY

REGINA MAGRUDER HILL, Chairman

The Committee was unanimous in their opinion that such a history should be written, and that it should be based on the Generation Charts already worked out, and the historical material on hand in the Clan Records.

There was a general discussion and the decision was that this project should be given further study. The Chairman asked that the Committee be enlarged for this purpose, and this was accomplished. A further report will be given at the next Annual Gathering.

SUSIE MAY GEDDES VAN DEN BERG
(MRS. O. O.)
1870—1961

A TRIBUTE TO THE MEMORY OF
SUSIE MAY GEDDES VAN DEN BERG

We pause in our deliberations to honor the memory of one who was for more than forty years a loyal member of this Society, and for thirty-two years an almost indispensable leader.

From the hand of gentle, warmhearted Mary Therese Hill, her aunt, she received the torch inspired by loyalty, and the challenge to carry on undimmed that bright guiding flame of pride in ancestry and tradition, that all held so dear. Through these thirty-two years of unselfish service, draining her slight physique, but sustained by her unquenchable spirit, she led the way. There were days of dire economic disaster and searing national conflict; but through all the banner she bore was not lowered.

Now, she had laid down honors she cherished and labors she so unselfishly performed. To mark the breadth and the depth of our feeling of sadness in the loss of one so dear, the following Resolutions are offered:

RESOLVED that members of American Clan Gregor Society, in Annual Gathering in the city of Annapolis, Maryland, on this 21st day of October, 1961, record with deepest sorrow their sense of loss in the death of their beloved member and inspired leader whose service through many years has been so valuable in so many fields of endeavor; and through whose leadership and conscientious performance of duty, this Society has endured and prospered;

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that these Resolutions be spread upon the Minutes of the Society; and that a suitably inscribed copy be sent to the family of our member and friend, whom we miss keenly and will long remember.

RECOGNITION OF CARTER BOWIE MAGRUDER

Carter Bowie Magruder has rendered outstanding services to his country and the free world, and this has brought great honor to this Society, of which he has been an interested member. He has recently retired from the Army, after more than forty years of devoted and effective service, during which he has held all ranks from Cadet to four star General. For two years ending on June 30, 1961, he was Commander-in-Chief, United Nations Command; Commander, United States Forces, Korea; and Commanding General, Eighth United States Army.

His military career began in 1918, by enrollment in the Plattsburg Training Camp, from which he was commissioned a Second Lieutenant. The next year he was appointed to the United States Military Academy at West Point. Four years later, he again was commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the Field Artillery. During the period between the World Wars, he had the usual assignments for a young officer; but he received more details to schools than most, because his ability was early recognized by his superiors.

Before World War II he was called to Washington, where he played a major role in planning and implementing the important logistical support for all overseas theatres. For his contributions, he was awarded the Distinguished Service Medal. Later, while serving as Assistant Chief of Staff of Allied Forces, he developed the support plans for the successful invasion of Southern France and Northern Italy; and for this service he was awarded the Oak Leaf Cluster to the Distinguished Service Medal. A second Oak Leaf Cluster to the Distinguished Service Medal was awarded for his services in Korea from June 1959 to June 1961.

Prior to his command in Korea, General Magruder was Chief of Logistics, Department of the Army, from 1955-1959.

During the summer of 1961, the University of Maryland Far East Division conferred the Honorary Degree of Doctor of Military Science upon General Magruder. The following quotation is taken from the citation made at the presentation ceremony: "Because this American Officer has pursued the high calling of service to his country, his country's allies, and now the United Nations organization, to which it has sworn allegiance; because he has reached the zenith within the officer ranks with four star status; because he has been cited and decorated by a score of nations; and because he has so far advanced the status of the professional warrior through education, we feel this man deserves the attention and acclaim of this university." The Honorary Degree of Doctor of Laws from Seoul National University was also awarded him.

Other decorations awarded General Magruder include Order of the Crown (Italy); Legion d'Honneur (France); Croix de Guerre with Palm (France); Order of the Crown (Belgium); Order of the Coeur du Chêne (Luxembourg); Order of Military Merit (Brazil); Medalha de Guerra (Brazil); Order of the British Empire; Order of the White Elephant (Thailand); Taeguk Distinguished Service Medal (ROK).

The American Clan Gregor Society, at its Fifty-Second Annual Gathering, therefore recognizes and records briefly the long, efficient, and devoted service of its member, a distinguished Son of the Commonwealth of Virginia, General Carter Bowie Magruder, United States Army.

MEMORIAL SERVICE

October 21, 1961

On account of inclement weather, this service was held in the Colonial Room of the Carvel Hall Hotel, instead of St. Anne's Episcopal Church, where it had been previously scheduled. It began at 3:45 P.M.

Miss Regina M. Hill and Mr. Edward Gregor entered bringing a large green wreath, which was placed on the platform at the end of the room. As Miss Hill read the name and death date of each departed member, Mr. Gregor placed a white carnation on the wreath. When the last name was called—there were seven in all—and the final carnation tucked into the wreath, our Chaplain, Rev. Daniel Randall Magruder, led us in a short service from the Prayer Book. As the service was being concluded, the bagpipes were played very softly in the background.

Memorial articles appear elsewhere in this book.

DEDICATION OF THE PINE TREE*at St. JOHN'S COLLEGEOctober 21, 1961*

This service was also held in the Colonial Room of the Carvel Hall Hotel as the rainy weather prevented our making the journey to the Campus of the College.

It was called to order by our Chieftain, Dr. Roger Gregory Magruder, at 4:45 P.M. He introduced Mr. Richard D. Weigle, President of St. John's College. Our Chaplain, Rev. Daniel Randall Magruder, made the presentation of the tree in honor of his father, Judge Daniel Randall Magruder. President Weigle accepted the tree on behalf of the College.

Miss Regina M. Hill read a poem, "The Pine Tree," which was composed by Mr. Caleb Clarke Magruder, a distinguished member of our Society, who is now deceased.

In conclusion, our Chieftain told us about a tulip poplar tree on St. John's Campus that is over 400 years old. It has stood the ravages of many a storm: even "Hurricane Hazel" that took away a number of its branches in the year 1954. He hoped that this pine tree planted to honor Judge Magruder would grow to be as hardy as the "tulip poplar" and live to be as old.

CHIEFTAIN'S REMARKS

AT THE DEDICATION OF THE PINE TREE

DR. ROGER GREGORY MAGRUDER

We are here today to dedicate this pine tree (the badge of Clan MacGregor) to the memory of an illustrious son of Maryland, an alumnus of St. John's College, a loyal member of this Society and a distinguished jurist, the late Judge Daniel Randall Magruder, who passed away in 1915.

In 1934, the American Clan Gregor Society planted a pine tree on the grounds of this venerable college of St. John's and the tree was named "The Daniel Randall Magruder Pine". After a period of time that tree died. Now with the approval of the authorities of St. John's College, the tree has been replaced by our Society. In behalf of the American Clan Gregor Society, Judge Magruder's son, the Rev. Daniel Randall Magruder, our chaplain, will present this memorial to St. John's College.

DEDICATION OF THE PINE TREE
AT ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE, ANNAPOLIS, MD.

Remarks of

REV. DANIEL RANDALL MAGRUDER

The Family of Judge Daniel Randall Magruder deeply appreciates the honor done him in the planting of this pine tree in his memory on the campus of St. John's College.

We are in fact a St. John's family. My father graduated in the class of 1853, and his father before him in the class of 1818. And my father's three sons are St. John's men.

It is a great and venerable institution and one that we are proud to be associated with. And may this new emblem of the American Clan Gregor Society flourish on its soil!

ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE
Annapolis, Maryland

October 23, 1961

My dear Dr. Magruder:

May I confirm what I said in my brief remarks at Carvel Hall on Saturday. St. John's College is proud to accept the pine tree from the American Clan Gregor Society, presented in honor of Judge Daniel Randall Magruder of the St. John's Class of 1853. We are proud to claim Judge Magruder as one of our most distinguished alumni. It was a particular pleasure to have the presentation made by the Chaplain of the Society, Judge Magruder's son, the Reverend Daniel Randall Magruder. He and his two brothers are also alumni of St. John's.

We believe that the location of the tree near the entrance to the Key Memorial is an excellent one. We trust that the tree will thrive there and that it will become a permanent living memorial to Judge Magruder.

With high regard,

Most sincerely,
RICHARD D. WEIGLE
President

Dr. Roger Gregory Magruder
Chieftain, American Clan Gregor Society

EVENTS HELD AT THE GATHERING

October 21, 1961

The Gathering of the Clan in Annapolis was a most delightful affair. Carvel Hall was the headquarters hotel. The front portion of Carvel Hall, "Paca House" was built in 1763 by William Paca, one of the four signers of the Declaration of Independence from Annapolis. "Paca House" has been preserved in its original Georgian elegance. The impressive new portion at the back faces the Naval Academy.

Clansmen began to gather on Thursday evening to be on hand for the meeting of the Council early Friday morning. Fourteen states were represented and the Registration Desk was a very busy place. Mrs. Edith Blunt was there with material on the Clan trip to England and Scotland, and Angus "the Pig" who was fed loose change and bills three times a day. $75 was contributed in this way.

During the Council meeting others present went on a guided walking tour of historic interest in Annapolis. After which a delicious luncheon was served in the Officers Club at the Naval Academy. Following luncheon there was a short tour of the Naval Academy grounds and buildings guided by Lieutenant De Vito, after which we were put aboard two Navy Y.P. Boats for a trip down the Severn River to the Chesapeake Bay. We were allowed to roam over the boats and were shown the engine room, the chart room, and the plotting courses. The most interesting to most of us was the electrical equipment and Radar.

Friday evening everyone went to dinner on their own and found a number of good seafood places. At eight-thirty all met at the Hotel and were "piped-in" to an assembly room by our young member Edward Gregor. Interesting pictures of Scotland were shown. Edward played his pipes on several other occasions. The Clan is glad to welcome this young member among its pipers.

When we awakened on Saturday morning it was raining hard and the wind blowing a gale. It poured all day and was still raining some at Banquet time. But this did not keep the McGregors and their guests away, and some even braved the elements and went sightseeing.

Because of the rain a change had to be made in two scheduled events. The dedication of a Scotch Pine tree in honor of Judge Daniel Randall Magruder, which had been planted on the St. John's College Campus in front of the Francis Scott Key building; and the Memorial Service to our honored dead, scheduled at St. Anne's Episcopal Church; had to be moved to the hotel dining room. A pine branch was used as a symbol of the tree and the services as planned were conducted with great success.

The "Clan Reception" was held in the west end of the Colonial Room of Carvel Hall Hotel from 6:15 to 7:30 P.M. Members of the "Clan," friends and guests remained in the main lobby, awaiting the arrival of the Hon. J. Millard Tawes, Governor of Maryland, and Mrs. Tawes, who were met at the front door by our Chieftain and Officers. After they were escorted into the lobby, the receiving line formed and we had the pleasure of meeting all of our distinguished guests as we passed through. The Mackenzie-Scott Pipe Band of Baltimore played bagpipe music as we assembled in the reception room. Our Chieftain, Dr. Roger G. Magruder, and a number of the guests and members were attired in their kilts, and made most impressive figures as they moved about the room greeting each other. Many were in evening dress with some wearing tartan sashes and crests. It was a lovely and colorful reception, with an attendance that perhaps excelled all previous ones. When the curtain partitioning the west end of the Colonial Room was raised, it was the signal that the reception was over and the Banquet beginning.

While the members and guests were locating their tables and places, the Mackensie-Scott Pipe Band of Baltimore was marching around the Colonial Room and busily "piping-in" the Clan. Following this was the "piping-in" of the Chieftain and the Honored Guests, followed by the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner" by the Assemblage. Our Chaplain offered the Blessing.

Next on the program came the "piping-in" of that ancient, Scottish dish, the Haggis. After being placed on a table in the center of the room, facing the Chieftain and Honored Guests; the Rev. Daniel Randall Magruder brandished vigorously a large knife over it while reciting most effectively Robert Burns' "Ode To The Haggis," after which it was served to each table. It was most interesting to observe the reactions and listen to the remarks of those who had never partaken of this food.

In his remarks the Chieftain introduced the Honored Guests, Past Chieftains and others at the head table; welcomed all present and read a telegram from the Chief of "The Clan Gregor Society", Major Sir Gregor MacGregor of MacGregor, Baronet, Lochearnhead, Scotland.

The Honorable J. Millard Tawes, Governor of Maryland, brought us greetings.

The Address of the evening, "Worthy Scots In American History," was delivered by Mr. James W. Muir, President of the St. Andrew's Society of Washington, D. C. It was a most interesting and humorous one and will appear in full in the Year Book.

It was truly a rare treat when Mr. Edwin Kindred, accompanied by Mr. David Parker at the piano, sang "MacGregors Gathering" and other Scottish Songs.

We were also delightfully entertained by the singing of Mrs. Chisholm Beach, with Mr. Beach accompanying at the piano and joining in the singing. One of the most beautiful songs that they sang was "Beloved" composed by Mr. Beach.

It was a great pleasure to have with us again the gifted dancer, Miss Kittie Blanche. She was accompanied on the Bagpipes by our Clansman, Dr. William C. Stokoe while she performed expertly and beautifully the following dances: "The Highland Fling," "The Sword Dance," and "The Seann Triubhas" (Old Trousers). This is at least the fourth time that Kittie has performed for us at our Gatherings, and gets better every year.

As usual, we were most pleased to have the entertainment rendered by "The Mackensie-Scott Pipe Band." They played a number of familiar melodies, each of which received a loud applause from the Assemblage. They made a most colorful appearance as well as giving an expert and enjoyable performance. Our clansman, Dr. William Clarence Stokoe rendered several delightful selections on his bagpipes.

At the close, all persons present joined hands, formed a large circle around the dining room, and sang an old favorite, "Auld Lang Syne."

This was a particularly delightful Gathering. All were together at one hotel for several days which gave more opportunity to get together to renew friendships and make new ones. Even the rain helped in this. The new members and those attending for the first time enjoyed becoming acquainted with the members of long standing. Next year in Richmond we will have this same chance for togetherness in the Jefferson Hotel.

As good-byes were being said everyone added "See you in Richmond". "Angus" will also be on hand.

Those present extend their personal thanks to Mr. Harry Woodward Blunt, Chairman of the Committee to Arrange for the 1961 Gathering, and to all members of this Committee who worked so hard and faithfully to make this Gathering a success and to Mrs. Philip Howell Lightfoot for the enjoyable musical entertainment which she arranged.

REMARKS OF THE CHIEFTAIN AT THE BANQUET

Governor and Mrs. Tawes, other distinguished guests, ladies and gentlemen of the American Clan Gregor Society:

This, our fifty-second annual Gathering is the first this Society has had in the great state of Maryland. When one considers that so many of our members have been natives of Maryland, or are descendents of Marylanders, it is natural that a gathering should be held in this picturesque capitol of "The Old Line State".

However, a gathering of this sort is nothing new for Annapolis, for in the Maryland Gazette on December 3, 1728, there appeared the following news item: "Annapolis: Saturday 30 last month, St. Andrew's Day observed here by gentlemen of the Scots Society as usual. Reverend Mr. Adams of Somerset preached sermon suitable to occasion after which gentlemen of that Society, accompanied by His Excellency, the Governor Charles Calvert, Esq., and most gentlemen of the town proceeded to house of Mr. George Neilsen, where handsome entertainment was provided at the expense of the Society."

Over two hundred and thirty years later Annapolis continues to provide "handsome entertainment" to the Scots, as I am sure all of you will agree.

Now, I hope you will enjoy the evening and to all I extend cordial greetings.

There are distinguished persons at the head table, whom we are very pleased to have with us and I should like to present them at this time.

First and foremost we are greatly honored and happy to have with us His Excellency, the Honorable J. Millard Tawes, Governor of Maryland and Mrs. Tawes.

Mrs. R. Gregory Magruder, my wife.

Hon. Joseph H. Griscom, Sr., Mayor of Annapolis and Mrs. Griscom.

Mr. William M. Patterson, President of the St. Andrew's Society of Baltimore, Maryland.

Lieut. Vincent DeVito, United States Navy and Mrs. DeVito. Lt. DeVito is on the teaching staff at the Naval Academy. He was our excellent host and guide at the Naval Academy yesterday.

Mr. John Kennedy Magruder, Ranking Deputy Chieftain of the American Clan Gregor Society. Mrs. Magruder was sick and unable to attend, I am sorry to say.

Last, but not least, Mr. James W. Muir, President of the St. Andrew's Society of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Muir. Mr. Muir has kindly consented to make the address this evening on a subject of his own choice. Knowing Mr. Muir, I know what he says will be well worth listening to.

WORTHY SCOTS IN AMERICAN HISTORY

MR. JAMES W. MUIR, President

ST. ANDREW'S SOCIETY OF WASHINGTON, D. C.

October 21, 1961

ANNAPOLIS, MARYLAND

Chieftain Magruder, honored guests, members and friends of American Clan Gregor Society, I can't begin to tell you how happy I am to be here tonight. As I stood in the receiving line and shook hands with Mrs. MacGregor, Mr. Magruder, Miss MacGregor, Macgruder, et cetera, I couldn't help but think what a close-knit, what an exclusive group this is. How a Muir got in, I do not know but I am proud to have been included. In fact, I feel so much more fortunate than a friend of mine who wanted so badly to join a very exclusive club in Pittsburgh. His name was San Lefkowitz. He went to his friend Jake, who was a charter member, and he said:

"Jake, I'm wanting to become a member of your club." Jake, of course, told him they were very, very particular and it was possible someone might object. "So Vat? Put in the application". The application was put in three times, and he was blackballed three times. So, I am happy I was not blackballed here tonight.

When your chieftain asked me to speak to you tonight, he gave me no time limit nor any particular subject. However, being a Scot I promise to be frugal with my time and yours. I know you have all heard so many stories of Scottish frugality—but I can't resist telling you my favorite:

"Margaret, the wife of a Scot, was very ill and had suddenly taken a turn for the worse. The doctor had been called and had given a new prescription. It was necessary that the husband go to the apothecary to get it filled. The husband was very uneasy about Margaret. He kissed her good-bye two or three times and as he was going out the door he turned back and said, "Margaret, if you feel that you are not going to last until I return, will you please blow out the candle?"

As to the subject—I am truly not qualified to tell of the magnificent history of the Clan Gregor.

King William IV once received a deputation with these words:

"If my love for you equalled my ignorance of everything concerning you, it would be unbounded". I am afraid, however, your reputation is so great that I am not able to make the same claim, for who has not heard of the MacGregors? Not only in Scottish history, but in American history as well.

Remembering that a fierce pride and a fierce belief in human freedom has distinguished, not only MacGregors, but also all the Lowland and Highland Scots and the Ulster Scots, you will not be surprised at these names of Scots in American frontier history.

Davy Crockett, Dave Bowie, Kit Carson and Sam Houston. Nor should you be surprised that the Little Log Cabin School established in Buck County, Pennsylvania, in 1718, and which grew to be Pinceton University, was founded by a Scot by the name of Reverend William Tennet. And such educational institutions as Knox College, Illinois; McAllister, Minnesota; Westminster, Missouri; Carnegie Tech of Pittsburgh, were all founded by Scots. As a matter of fact, the first English school grammar in the United States was the work of Lindley Murray, and the greatest school reader ever published was written by McGuffey.

But the Scots were not only frontiersmen and educators, they were statesmen as well. We number nine of the signers of our Declaration of Independence and, incidentally, I suggest you read The Scottish Declaration of Independence. You will be amazed and pleased at the similarity of wording.

Twelve more Scots had a hand in writing our Constitution.

Those immortal words "Give me liberty or give me death" were uttered by a Scot—Patrick Henry, while another Scot, John Paul Jones, made his fame on the high seas. And of course there were Presidents Monroe, Grant, Wilson, Jackson, Polk, Buchanan (who, incidentally, was a member of my own St. Andrews Society in Washington). Also Johnson, Arthur and McKinley. And there were soldiers—U. S. Grant, Robert E. Lee, Stonewall Jackson, Jeb Stuart, Winfield Scott, Andrew Jackson, Zachery Taylor, to name a few, as well as a very famous name in recent history—Douglas MacArthur.

And as for the arts, we claim such names as Gilbert Stuart, George Innes, James McNeil Whistler, and so on and on and on. In pioneering, education, statesmanship, religion, industry, and the Arts.

We glory in these names, do we not? Then should we not pause for a moment of sober reflection to consider our job in this world of today?

We have the freedom for which they fought and died. We have the education, the industry. Should we not have the courage to ask ourselves whether those whom we elevate to highest places are reflecting our wishes?

Must we always be looking for a way out of the cold war—a compromise here, a compromise there, or should we not wage the cold war?

Remember, Munich led to World War II, when a thoughtless world refused to pay attention to a blue print for world conquest "Mein Kampf" by Adolph Hitler.

We are now faced with threats and subjected to insults from another brute—Nikita Krushchev who has outlined in no uncertain terms his plan for world domination. Shall we let this warning go unheeded? Stand fast. Stand fast to your Scottish inheritance, for those are the things of which great and good Americans are made.

And now—

"Whether your name's McGregor, Magruder or MacKay, MacAdoo or MacInross, MacFrugal or MacNie, MacNeil, MacLeod or Auchingloss, MacSquashie or MacLean,

Well, that's just fine 'cause that's a sign there's Scot blood in your veins.

The headquarters will be The Jefferson Hotel at Main and Jefferson Streets, three blocks East of Belvidere Street which is No. 1 Highway through the City. There is ample room for parking in the hotel's parking lot across the street.

There will be a Tour to some historic place, probably to the Civil War Battlefield, covering much of the territory over which Gen. John Bankhead Magruder led his troops. Memorial Services will be in one of the old historic churches, probably at St. John's Episcopal Church.

There will be several luncheons and the Clan Reception and the Banquet will be held in The Jefferson Hotel.

The exact time and costs of the various functions will be announced at a later date.

JULIA MAY CHEWNING MAGRUDER

("Aunt Julia")An Angel of this Society

By EVELINA MAGRUDER

"Ju", as she was affectionately called by the husband of her second marriage, whom she fondly called "Baby" in spite of the fact that he was six feet or more in stature, defied any display of formality. It seems fitting then that a sketch of her should likewise be informally treated.

"Aunt Julia" as in later years she was known to us, her nieces and nephews, grew in freedom and happiness in her "Island Home" near Milton, Albemarle County, Virginia, where she was born on October 16, 1854. Her father and mother, John W. Chewning and Mary Elizabeth Strange Chewning, created an atmosphere of love and friendliness for their thirteen children. Julia May Chewning, the subject of this sketch, was surrounded with happiness in place of worldly wealth; affection, kindness and hospitality in place of coldness and criticism, and a natural gaiety which permeated the family life. In a home already overflowing there was always room for one more, and visitors were drawn to abide there where the atmosphere was so winning. Aunt Julia romped and played with her five sisters and six brothers, one having died in infancy. Her sweetness and vivacity were unquenchable and she was always equal to any challenge in sportsmanship. The following episode in her youth, which has been handed down, will exemplify her dauntless spirit.

When she was visiting "Glenmore", of which she later became the mistress, then the home of her great-uncle, and between which place and her own home there was a constant interchange of hospitality, she was being chased by her young cousins. In her eagerness to outstrip them, she tore upstairs not realizing the limitations of an upper floor. Finally she found herself trapped on the upper porch, with no means of escape except through the one door through which her pursuers were closing in upon her. Gleelessly they bore down upon her, but Aunt Julia had no idea of being captured so easily. To the amazement and concern of the boys, she kicked off her slippers, embraced one of the columns of the porch, about two feet square, and skinned down its side to safety, some fifteen feet below. She thus outwitted the gasping boys, for I believe there is no record of any of them following her by that method. Thereby she must have won their admiration and comradeship for all time.

Although in later years she was exposed to the comforts and opportunities of wealth, she never lost her capacity to enjoy the simplest pleasures and to adjust herself to the most trying circumstances, always with graciousness.

So many families of that day employed tutors or governesses who lived in the home, but there was no mention of such in "Island Home" as the Keswick neighborhood was particularly fortunate in the opportunities afforded by private schools. Aunt Julia obtained her education from such sources, chief among which was "Edgehill", at Shadwell, just up the road a short piece from her home. As a day pupil she attended this school for girls which was conducted by the Misses Sarah and Caroline Randolph, descendents of Thomas Jefferson, and which for many years was one of the famous private schools for girls in the South.

JULIA MAY CHEWNING MAGRUDER
(Aunt Julia)

However, with her sparkling beauty and charm, fate did not allow Aunt Julia overtime with her books. George Walker Wallace, of "Wallaceton", Deep Creek, Norfolk Count, Virginia, many years her senior, at first glance recognized her charms and capabilities when she was visiting one of her elder married sisters near his home. It was her eighteenth birthday when she became his bride. Those who could give information of this period of Aunt Julia's life have passed on, but we can readily surmise that she was a dutiful and thoughtful wife for the eighteen or so years of her marriage.

After Mr. Wallace's passing, with no children to be a solace to her, Aunt Julia was a widow only a few years when Horatio Erskine Magruder, of "Glenmore", her childhood playground, sought her and she became his wife on December 12, 1894.

It was some ten years later when I was old enough to become aware of the sympathy, interest and generosity she always directed towards us, the younger generation. As the years wore on, my appreciation of her increased as I realized her modesty and utter selflessness in the dedication of her life to the happiness of her husband. This husband was not one for the hospitality to which she had been accustomed, so her habits were cheerfully attuned to a more sequestered home life. Her horsemanship was of the best and she was a frequent companion of Uncle Rashe as he made his daily rounds of the farm on horseback. They were charter members of the Keswick Hunt Club, of which Uncle Rashe was one of the founders. Consequently they were constant followers of the hounds and present at the hunt breakfasts. They also enjoyed the social festivities of the neighborhood and were always popular guests. When the automobile came in, however, Uncle Rashe resumed his habit of roaming, which had caused his younger brothers to nickname him "Rover", and took to the road once more. There was scarcely a byroad in Albemarle County, the adjoining counties, or even those farther afield that this couple did not explore. In that era the roads were beds of red mud and mire when they were wet, or else a thick dust screen following any car passing over them in dry weather, and at all times they were full of holes and ruts. Sometimes these two would disappear for days, to reappear and tell of their interesting explorations, the difficulties they had encountered, and the delays that had detained them on some unheard of back road. Aunt Julia entered into these pilgrimages with a spirit equal to the occasion. Her zest and interest were unlimited as she sat beside "Baby" in their model T Ford and pierced the ruts and thickets of the back country. On one occasion when they met with a slight encounter with another car, their car was rendered incapable of locomotion, and they suffered slight injuries. Some kindly friend picked them up in a horsedrawn buggy, and brought them to the hospital in Charlottesville for attention. As Uncle Rashe was a large man, he of necessity sat on the seat with the driver, while Aunt Julia, who was then in her sixties, was stuffed into the section behind the seat used for storage, her feet dangling over the edge of the buggy. When the equipage reached the hospital the staff rushed to assist the elderly lady from the rear, but she strongly objected saying, "O! get Baby, help Baby." The bewildered group looked high and low for a helpless baby in arms and when they realized the baby was Mr. Horatio Erskine Magruder, sitting lustily on the front seat, weighing nigh unto three hundred pounds, they were reduced to laughter, in spite of the seriousness of the situation. Always without thought of self she subjected herself to inconvenience that others might have the advantages of the situation.

During her life at "Glenmore" she enriched the place with the beauty of planting, and her perennial love of flowers rendered it charming with the beauty of blossom from early spring to late autumn. She enjoyed nothing more than to indulge her generous spirit by bringing a bouquet of flowers to relatives or friends, often accompanied by choice delicacies from her vegetable garden, or fruits from her orchards.

Her generosity extended to her church in large measure. The county parish of Grace Church, near Cismont, Virginia, of which she was a devoted member, relied on her constant support and deep interest. A retired minister of this parish always speaks of her with the greatest affection and admiration, and feels that she, in large part, sustained the church with her active services and generous gifts.

Aunt Julia was never severed from the close family life of her childhood. Every summer as long as they were able, she and her five sisters met for a reunion at one of the Springs or some other restful resort in Virginia. As the next generation came into being, they were included in these gatherings, and the teasing, bantering, and good fun that took place were truly refreshing, as well as a typical and gratifying reflection of her early family life.

The American Clan Gregor Society meant a great deal to both Uncle Rashe and Aunt Julia. As charter members they rarely missed a Gathering while Uncle Rashe was living. Aunt Julia was interested in all the Clan activities, and she won the hearts of the members with her graciousness and charm. In 1937 when this Society made a pilgrimage to Charlottesville to the grave of Dr. Edward May Magruder, one of the founders and its first Chieftain, and also the brother-in-law of Aunt Julia, she entertained the members at a luncheon at "Glenmore", the boyhood home of Dr. Edward May Magruder.

She was also an interested member of the Daughters of the American Revolution and the Colonial Dames.

After the death of her husband on the 19th of January, 1924, being childless, she continued to live at "Glenmore" with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Sally Watson Magruder Stewart. Frequently other members of her or her husband's family spent long periods of time with these two active and spirited elderly ladies.

It was during this period of her life that, on several occasions, she accompanied her brother-in-law and sister, Major and Mrs. Edward Magruder Tutwiler, to foreign countries. On one of these trips they visited Major Tutwiler's son, Temple, who lived in India. While there they enjoyed the luxuries of a household keyed to the life of a maharajah. Another time during a trip around the world with this same couple, Major Tutwiler's health did not survive and he died while crossing the Pacific Ocean. Aunt Julia was a source of strength and comfort to her sister on the last lap of their sad return. Regardless of the heights and depths of her experiences, she always returned to "Glenmore" the same sweet, unspoiled "Aunt Julia."

While in her eighties, with a figure as slim as a girl's, and her face expressing her beauty and rare character, Aunt Julia, as mistress of "Glenmore", welcomed with the warmth and affection that had always attended her family relationships, the yearly gatherings of the descendents of her deceased husband's father, and her own great-uncle, Benjamin Henry Magruder. Not until her declining health forbade their continuance did these gatherings cease.

As her strength gradually left her, all the sweetness of her life seemed to take over her entire being and reflect a serene radiance. Even the nurses, who cared for her, fell under this charm and tended her as a beloved relative. She passed away on November 29, 1950, at the age of 96, and her life is best summed up in the words of one of her devoted neices, Mary Addison Tutwiler: "Through loyalty to high ideals, faithfulness to her family and friends, and devotion to the Master's cause, Aunt Julia exemplified the characteristics of a truly fine woman. Her life was beautiful in its simplicity and gentle bearing, its broad sympathies and generosity. In her death, 'Glenmore', the ancestral home of the Magruder family, lost a homemaker of rare charm."

In closing, from the Year Book of this Society recording the Council Meeting in Washington, D. C., in 1944, on page 52, a quotation from Mr. John Muncaster's article entitled, "A Day With Our First Chieftain", aptly proves her devotion to the American Clan Gregor Society:—

"'Aunt Julia' (Mrs. Horatio Magruder) as you all know, spent a good many years on this earth after her husband passed away, and she was most interested in the American Clan Gregor Society. Several times when our finances got so low that bills were unpaid and receipts would never cover them she came along with a check that would just about cover the deficit. 'John Muncaster' she said 'use this to pay what we owe, but if you tell where you got it I do not know what I will do to you'. I always said an Angel met me and the officers let it go at that. At this date I am not afraid to let it out."

ROB ROY'S GREAT SWORD

The Brooklyn Eagle publishes the following statement in regard to "Rob Roy's Great Sword":

"The halls of the Long Island Historical Society contain in their archives many a rare and curious relic of days that are long passed—mementoes of peoples and races that are known today but by the strangling pages of history and the implements of war and peace, which time has spared. On one of the desks in the library hall, surrounded by the quiet of the silent volumes on the shelves, rests the sword which long ago was wielded by the mighty arm of the Highland Chief Rob Roy, o'er many a bloody field of Scotland's heather, made famous by the pen of Scott. The uses and ravages of time have played sad havoc with the trappings which once adorned it, but the blade and hilt are still as sharp and strong as when first buckled to the belt of the father of the famous chief himself. The claymore is some five feet in length, with a broad two-edged blade of the finest tempered steel, and weighs some 14, or 15 pounds. The handle, protected by a basket hilt of strongly-wrought brass, is adapted to the use of one or two hands. Along the blade are many nicks and seams, mute evidence of the war and strife through which it has passed. The sheath of leather has long ago succumbed to time, and now is torn and broken in many places, being held together by the brass bands alone, which form the tips and ring stay for hanging. Tied to the handle is a worn piece of leather, upon the torn surface of which can still be plainly seen the name of its old master, Rob Roy, written with a thick substance similar to paint or white lead. The first letter of the name has been torn away, but the remaining ones are plain and distinctly written in a bold, round hand. The weapon was worn and used by Rob Roy MacGregor, and has been preserved in the family of MacGregor until the present time. It was on exhibition at the Centennial in Philadelphia in 1876, and is now exhibited at the Long Island Society through the courtesy of Mr. John MacGregor of this city. The claymore was also used in the wars of the Covenanters and Cavaliers by Colonel Donald MacGregor of Glengyle, father of Rob Roy".

The above is copied from a clipping sent to me by Mr. John MacGregor of Edinburgh, Scotland, Honorable Secretary of "The Clan Gregor Society". It appeared in the Brooklyn Eagle of sometime in the last century—after the Philadelphia Centennial of 1876. He wrote me as follows: "I found it among the papers I inherited when I took over the Secretaryship."

HOMES OF YESTERYEAR

*“MORVEN” A BIRCKHEAD HOME

ALBEMARLE COUNTY, VA.

Prepared by KENDALL PALMER BIRCKHEAD

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Birckhead, my father and mother, were among the first members of the American Clan Gregor Society. Our family were close friends of Dr. Edward M. Magruder and Dr. Jesse Ewell.

The Birckheads came to this country with Lord Baltimore. My branch of the family moved to Albemarle County, Virginia, from Maryland, in the 18th Century. So far as I know we have always spelled our name BIRCKHEAD.

Mrs. Yarrington is my first cousin. Dr. and Mrs. E. F. Birckhead are our grandparents. My great grandmother, Dr. Birckhead's mother, built "Morven" in the 1820's. It was sold to Mr. Matto five or six years ago. I have no picture of the house. It is in a very run down condition now. I can remember the time when the house and grounds were lovely.

As you state in your letter, my grandmother Birckhead was born at "Solitude" in Madison Co., Va., in 1826. This was the home of the Graves family. I have portraits in my home of great-grandmother Graves, and her son Thomas. The Graves are related to the Thrifts.

My parents, my brother, and my aunts and uncles, all at some time attended the yearly meetings of the Clan. My wife and I would enjoy these meetings but we are too old and live too far from Washington to do so.

Note: Eleven members of the Birckhead family have been members of the Clan, and Mrs. Yarrington is still a member.

Mrs. John W. Yarrington, Clan No. 487, Still a member, 1962

Mrs. Thomas Graves Birckhead, Clan No. 170-A, Died 1954 (Year Book 1955, P. 80)

Four generations of the Birckhead family are buried in the family burying ground at "Morven".

*There are two Morvens in Albemarle County, the one mentioned in this article is located in the northern portion of the County on the Rivanna River, and the other in the southern portion on the south side of the South West Mountains, not far from Monticello, the home of Thomas Jefferson.

NINIAN BEALL AND THE "ROCK OF DUMBARTON"

by Marie Stevens Macneil

This is the foreword of a book which was being written by Mrs. Macneil at the time of her death. It is a most interesting pamphlet.

Marie Macneil of Barra, was a member of the American Clan Gregor Society. She died at her Oyster Bay, Long Island home on April 30, 1952. (See, Year Book, 1953, p. 55.)

"WHEN THE OLD MAGRUDER HOMES WERE YOUNG"

by Mrs. R. S. Pope Jr., (Olive Magruder Smith)

This is an especially "delicious" little pamphlet. Mrs. R. S. Pope, Jr., (Olive Magruder Smith) a clanswoman, took the photographs of the Magruder Homes seen in the early Year Books and made hand drawings of them, grouped people around them and then hand painted each picture. These pictures are charming.

The homes have been labelled as to the Year Book in which they appear.

RANDOM NOTES

Mrs. Alice S. Mansfield celebrated her 100th Birthday the year, 1961. Mrs. Mansfield is the mother of our member, Lt. Commander Richard H. Mansfield, a retired police inspector and director of the Evening Star's (Washington, D. C.)

school safety program. Another son, Donald, is also retired from the police force and lives in California.

"I never thought I'd live to be 100," Mrs. Mansfield said. "It's been a long time to live and feel as good as I do, and get as much use out of myself."

The following item was sent in by Mr. Herbert Thomas Magruder :

Mrs. Magruder, a longtime parishoner, was to leave the Parish during the week for her new home in Palo Alto, California. She will have with her in her new home, her daughter, Mrs. Lida Jane (Hayden) Wood, and her grandson, Abbott Francis Hayden, Mrs. Wood's husband, William S. Wood, having passed away on April 19, 1961.

Pilot William Magruder: "Record smashed as DC-8 Douglas Jetliner, New Series 50, becomes first commercial aircraft to fly faster than Mach 7.

It was a routine test flight of a production line airplane from the Douglas DC-8 plant in Long Beach, California, but it wrote aviation history over Edwards Air Force Base as Douglas Pilot Bill Magruder put it through its paces as part of the various tests required in certifying it for airline service."

Pilot William Magruder is the son of the late Major General Bruce Magruder, and a nephew of Brig. General Marshall Magruder, deceased.

Her father was born Feb. 19, 1854, in Lake County, Illinois, and her mother in Rensselaer County, New York, on December 22, 1859. Highland Clans meet in Salado, Texas: Mrs. Uel Stephens sent a news clipping from the Fort Worth Star-Telegram of November 13, 1961, telling of the meeting of Clanspeople in Salado. "Texans bearing some of Scotland's proudest names rallied to their tartans here Sunday at the first statewide gathering of the clans. Four hundred ninety-three men, women and bairns were registered and several hundred more stood in the street outside the Central Texas Area Museum to enjoy the spectacle. Six bagpipes alarmed the countryside with the strains of "Scotland the Brave". A line of junior high school girls from Temple did the Highland Fling. Kilted representatives of once warring clans marched amicably down the road and planted their tartans in a gaudy rank for the wind to unfurl.

"Thirty-six clans, including MacGregor, met to review the ancient traditions of Scotland in one of Texas' historic towns. Rob Roy MacGregor was on hand in his capacity of bagpiper and was dressed in tribal splendor; also on hand was Robert Bruce, the 13 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bruce of Austin.

"The meeting was originally planned as just a companionable get-together of Central Texas of Scottish ancestry, who might enjoy swapping a few tales about their Highland forebears and hearing some sentimental tunes on the pipes. But Mrs. Sterling C. Robertson, the secretary of the museum, soon began to get stacks of letters-of-intent saying they were coming. And they came."

Mrs. Stephens sent several pictures showing Rob Roy MacGregor. He is a fine looking man. The entire article and the pictures will be put in the Clan Scrap Book.

In the Library of Congress, the following book was found, file number, RA-1121-M3:

Wanted: Date and place of marriage of Christopher Osborne and Sarah Magruder, daughter of Archibald Magruder of Virginia or Maryland.

The Osbornes came from Cecil County, Maryland and S. E. Penn. They had a grandson, Dr. Archibald Magruder Osborne of Canton, N. C. Who were his parents?

Christopher Osborne left a Will which was probated at Charlotte, Mecklenburg Co., N. C., in 1789. He left three plantations.

There was an inquiry on the above in the William & Mary Quarterly, from Fred R. Osborne, 208 N. Mount Clair Ave., Dallas, Texas. If Mr. Osborne sees this, and if he received a reply to his query, we hope he will contact the Editor of the A.C.G.S. Year Book.

Wanted: Magruder—Osborne information. Thomas Magruder made a Will Jan. 1808, which was probated in Maryland, May 16, 1809. (See Liber T. No. 1 Folio 15, Hall of Records, Annapolis, Md.)

In this Will he left "to grandson, Thomas Osborne, 55½ acres, all of a parcel of land deeded to me by William B. Beans. Balance of the Estate to go to my grandsons and granddaughters:

Thomas Osborne, Richard Osborne, Sary (Sary) Osborne, Eleanor Osborne, Ann Osborne, Mary Osborne, Susannah Osborne, and an infant lately born ("whose name I do not know"), to be equally divided between them."

Who were the parents of this Thomas Magruder, and what was the name of his daughter who married an Osborne and thereby the mother of the above named children?

In the 1911-12 Year Book of the A.C.G.S. on page 98 we find the following:

"Dates of Magruder Marriage Licenses as recorded in the P. G. Co., Maryland, records from 1777 to 1799," the following marriage: Jan. 12, 1788, Sarah Magruder and John Osborne. Could this Sarah be the daughter of Thomas Magruder?

Daniel McGregor: "Had a warrant out of the Secretary's Office for 500 acres of land in Waha on ye Southside of Santee River which was formerly ye plantation of King Jeremy, ye 27th of October 1701."

Other records show the name spelled: MacGregory, Mackreger and Mackgregor

A certain Daniel McGregor of Craven Co., S. C., made his Will, 13th of May, 1723—Wife, Martha; Children: Daniel, Ann, Sarah Morrill, Dorcas, Dorothy, Elizabeth and Mary.

Wish to know the birth place of the above Daniel McGregor.

Mrs. Walter L. Havens of North Little Rock, Ark., has sent the Clan some N. C. records. Among them is the abstract of the Will of John Brownson, dated 11 Jan. 1711, S. C., proved 28 April 1712, S. C. In this Will he mentions his wife, Hannah, to whom he left the land in Farmington, Hartford Co., Conn., and a daughter, Sarah, wife of Daniel Macgregory (or MacGregor).

We would like to correspond with descendants of Daniel MacGregory and his wife, Sarah Brownson. Where did he come from before he appeared in S. C.?

A Daniel MacGregor made a Will in Charleston County, S. C., dated 13 May 1723. His wife was Martha, who may have been a second marriage. He was of Craven County, N. C.

Even her well-known cake recipes and exact market orders are given in detailed summary.

Miss Gatchell's varied interests are reflected in the many fields represented in the 176 books, pamphlets and magazines that make up the collection. The many recipe books are the collection of a connoisseur and a successful practitioner. Many of these volumes were acquired during her travels in this country and abroad.

The arts are well represented in the collection, as well as the classics and many biographies of famous persons. During her lifetime she gave many books to the Auburn Library in memory of her friends.

Miss Gatchell's genealogical and historical data was given by her sister to the Department of Archives and History. Dana Gatchell did very fine needlepoint and tapestries. SUSIE MAY GEDDES VAN DEN BERG

by Regina Magruder Hill

Susan Mary Geddes van den Berg was born October 23, 1870 at the home of her parents on First Street, N.E., between B & C Streets, Washington, D. C. If this house were standing today it would block the center of the Senate Office Building court. The house was owned by Mrs. van's grandmother, Mary Thomas Magruder Hill (Mrs. William Wilson Hill) of "Glenway", Prince Georges County, Maryland.

Susan Mary, known as Susie May, was the daughter of Charles Wright Geddes and his wife Anne (Nannie) Reed Hill.

Susie May was educated at St. Cecelia's Academy on Capitol Hill, where she made many lasting friendships. She had a keen, intelligent mind. She grew up among her eight brothers and sisters, she being the eldest of nine children born to her parents. Only one sister survives, Mrs. Daniel Dillon (Mildred Geddes).

MRS. ANN MINERVA MAGRUDER WILSON

1867-1960

A memorial to Mrs. Wilson will be found in the Year Book published in 1961, on page 52. This photograph was taken at about 18 years of age.

Presented by her nieces, Mrs. Josephine Smith and Mrs. Jaunita Ventura

In July, 1899, she married Mr. O. O. van den Berg, in Alexandria, Virginia. Her husband was born in Holland, and came to America with his parents when a child. His people settled in Baltimore County, Maryland. He had a Dutch given name, but everyone called him "Van" and loved him. He was one of the most gentle and lovable of men, and was a great favorite in the family. They had one child, Henrietta Isabelle, born August 18, 1900. This baby girl died as an infant. She was named "Henrietta" for Mr. van den Berg's mother and "Isabelle" for Susie May's sister.

They moved to Kansas City, Missouri shortly after their marriage returning to Washington before World War I.

After the death of her mother on June 29, 1901, she and Mr. van den Berg took her youngest sister, Mildred, then 12 years of age, to their home in Kansas City and raised and educated her. She is also survived by three nephews, Com. Daniel Dillon, John Douglas Dillon, and Robert Spaulding Peters-Parkhurst, and a niece, Ruth.

During World War I, Mrs. van den Berg had a luncheon-basket service at the Fuel Administration when it first opened in the old Gordon Hotel on 16th Street. Later she and her husband ran a cafeteria in one of the War Services in downtown Washington. She also made soap. A picture of her at this task is in one of the Scrap Books of the Clan.

Susie May spent much of her childhood at the Hill family home "Glenway" in Prince George's County, Maryland. She and her husband spent several summers there shortly before his death and she came back for a summer following his death, after which she took an apartment in Washington, D. C. Later her cousin, Regina Magruder Hill, shared it with her.

At this apartment began her steady work for the American Clan Gregor Society. She then moved with her sister, Mrs. Rosalind Magruder and Miss Regina Magruder Hill to the Highlands Apartment, where the first Clan office was started.

Susie May was one of the Clan's most ardent workers, serving as Registrar from 1928 to 1958, when she was made Registrar Emeritus, and as a member of the Program Committee 1936, 1937 and 1938, when she was made Chairman and served as such through 1949. She wrote many articles for the Year Books among them one in the 1947 Year Book, p. 83 and helped on many others. She helped to work out the plan for a Genealogical Index of the Year Books, whereby one may trace a given descendent back to the Immigrant, Alexander Magruder. She carried out the plans for the Coat of Arms project, contacting the Artist who made the steel engraved plate and who hand painted the Coat of Arms in authentic colors. She had the distribution of them and saw that the first fifty sold bore the name of the Artist.

She thoroughly enjoyed the Clan in all of its activities; enjoyed going to the Gatherings and meeting and coming to know those with whom she had corresponded. She greatly missed the Gatherings of the Clan when she could no longer attend.

She enjoyed people which made her popular in any group. She held membership in another family society, the Society of the Descendents of Maureen Duvall, and was a devoted and hard working member of Magruder Chapter DCDAR in which she held office as Chaplain, Recording Secretary, Corresponding Secretary, Historian, Registrar, Vice Regent and Regent for a period covering 24 years. She also held membership in the Maryland Historical Society and the Prince George's County Historical Society and was a longtime member of the American Clan Gregor Society.

I did not know Susie May as a girl and saw very little of her until she returned to Washington to live. But from then until her death I will always have pleasant and loving memories of her. We lived and worked together for many years.

Susie May Geddes van den Berg passed away in the evening of May 20, 1961. She was buried with Catholic Graveside Services in Congressional Cemetery, Washington, D. C.

Mrs. van den Berg contributed three articles to the Year Book on the Hill family. The first on her grandmother, Mary Thomas (Magruder) Hill, 1926-27 issue, p. 93; the 2nd on her mother, Anne Reed (Hill) Geddes, 1930 issue, p. 54; the 3rd on her sister, Mrs. Isabelle Hill (Geddes) Smith, 1940 issue, p. 47. Other articles are a Report of Work Done on the Archives, 1950 issue, p. 28; and "Not a Pretty Picture", 1951 issue, p. 58.

Relatives surviving her are: One sister, Mrs. Daniel Dillon, three nephews, Com. Daniel Dillon, John Douglas Dillon, and Robert Spaulding Peters-Parkhurst, and one niece Ruth. . . .

Genealogy: Susie May Geddes van den Berg was the daughter of Anne Reed Hill and Robert Wright Geddes; she daughter of William Wilson Hill and Mary Thomas Magruder; she daughter of Thomas Magruder and Mary Clarke; he son of Isaac Magruder and Sophia Baldwin; he son of Nathan Magruder and Rebecca Beall; he son of John Magruder and Susannah Smith; he son of Samuel Magruder and Sarah Beall, and he son of Alexander Magruder the immigrant.
