My dear Miss Hill:

I am in receipt of your letter of August 25th ordering a copy of the will of William Offutt. We are sending this under separate cover (Wills 21, folio 92-95). As certification is fifty cents extra, your total bill is $ 2.71. A bill for this amount is enclosed. I am returning your check as State bookkeeping requires that the exact amount of the bill should be indicated on the check.

The Hall of Records rarely sends abstracts of wills. Wills 31, folio 372-4 can be photocopied and sent to you for $ 1.71. According to this will made May 4, 1761, Samuel Offutt's wife was named Elizabeth. His sons were Mordecai, Burgess, Hezekiah, Zephaniah, Nathaniel, Nathan and his daughters were Elizabeth Magruder, and Mary, Hannah, Deborah, Ursulah and Cassandra Offutt. The land named is Offutt's Pasture, Offutt's Adventure, Offutt's Lot, Outlet and Hop Yard.
