Ms. LaRaye Holcomb
1301 Homewood Avenue
Baltimore, Maryland 21202

Dear Ms. Holcomb:

I have tried to reach you on numerous occasions to discuss your moving from 1301 Homewood Avenue. My understanding is that you had talked with Mayor Schموke and Commissioner Henson about your situation.

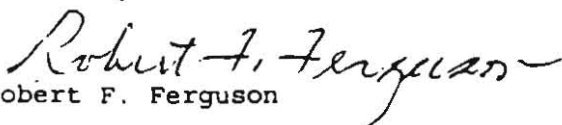

One of the notations on a telephone message received from you states that your neighborhood is "a shooting gallery" and that you have been robbed several times, and you want to relocate to a three-bedroom unit in another area of the city.

We would like to help you to the extent we can. We cannot assure you, however, that an area you choose may not present some of the problems you now experience.

At the present time, we have no three-bedroom dwelling units available for housing. A telephone message dated June 13, 1994, lists your areas of housing preferences as Cedonia, Northern Parkway, Perring Parkway, Lochraven and York Road. There are very few properties owned by the Housing Authority in these areas.

Please be assured that your case will receive the priority it deserves, and that we will transfer you as soon as practicable.

Sincerely,

Robert F. Ferguson
