September 24, 1913.

My dear Walter,-

Received your card, and in a short time I find myself sitting by the desk with ink and pen in my hand just to write these few lines to you my friend.

In request to your card why I was very glad to hear that you are well as to myself I am the same. Letting you know something about the country the place is very nice the river is near, we are working pretty hard just about now that's why I would not write you a long letter, but still I will tell you all that I want to tell you.

Don't let me know that there is plenty sail out country and plenty fellows, but none like you dear.
Will tell you something about the weather why it is cold in Norway this winter week ago we have had terrible rain, and violent gales of wind, clear & mist aye my pain is had my ink in sail but my love for you shall never fail, some people tells me that it is a sin to love, I am not asking them why, but if it is a sin to love you & will sin until I die, the night was dark, the shoes were blue that was the night when I met you you looked so sweet so fond and true you could I hope from loving you. I will close with Anticipation for an early reply I beg to Remain

Very Truly Yours

Margarette

My Love I am begging your pardon for not writing so long but I could not help it because we were working over time.

While rocks and hills divide us While you I cannot see, Remember it is Margarete, That wrote these lines to thee.

Answer soon
if possible.

Good bye
Dearest.
