Sunday, May 3, 1987

43RD ANNIVERSARY OF POLISH AMERICAN CONGRESS

The Polish American Congress was born in great adversity. It was the culmination of united thoughts for general unity to express in a louder voice the concerns and anxiety of Americans of Polish descent over the fate of their brothers and sisters in Poland because the Polish people are not represented by a government of their choice.

The Polish American Congress for years has developed a reputation of a sound, strong voice of Polonia. No one foresaw the existence for such a long period of time. There were happy and satisfying moments, as well as sad, worrisome and prayerful times.

The Polish American Congress is the voice of organized Polonia. True, it does not speak for everyone, neither does it profess to do so, but it speaks for the majority of concerned Polish Americans.

My deep appreciation for your confidence and trust in the Polish American Congress. Only through a unified Polonia can we succeed in our objectives.

We will succeed.

Melvin S. Laszczynski
President
Maryland Division

National Anthem

Jeszcze Polska Nie Zginela

Jeszcze Polska Nie Zginala, Poki My Zyjemy,
Co Nam Obca Przemoc Wziela, Noca Odbierzemy.
Marsz, Marsz Dabrowski, Z Ziemi Wloskiej Do Polskiej
Za Tnoim Przewodem Zlaczym Sie Z Narodem.

Przejdziem Wisle, Przejdziem Wartę, Bedziem Polakami:
Dal Nam Przyklad Bonaparte, Jak Zwyciezyc Mamy ... Marsz Marsz
... Itd ...

ENGLISH TRANSLATION

Oh Our Poland Shall Not Perish, While We Live To Love Her.
What The Cruel Foe Has Ravished, We'll Regain Through Power.
March, March Dabrowski, From Italias Fair Lanes,
Back To Join The Nation: Back To Poland's Broad Plains.

We'll Cross Wisla, Warta Waters, and Our Bondage Sever,
Joining Poland's Sons and Daughters, We'll Be Poles Forever.
March, March, Etc. . . .

HISTORICAL NOTE

A song of General Dabrowski's legions, as they marched from Italy to Poland in 1797.
