Baltimore, MD (St Stanislaw). KAZIMIERZ died 1924, MD. Casimir worked as a sleigh driver for a rich land owner in Poland. The old timers in the village told him that if he knew who his ancestors were, he would not be driving for someone else. It was said that his grandfather was very wealthy, a night raider and General in the Polish Insurrection, with a bounty on his head. The family name was AUGUSCZAK, but he changed it when he tried to flee the country. He was captured, however, and executed. (Family story related by Casimir to his son, Frank.) BARBARA: Family memories, perhaps from immigration experiences, give the surname as ANUSZEWSKI.
