Miles and Morgan.

(A Patriotic Hymn, by Joseph Buelfield)

1. When 'tis said that Rome shall win
Earth again for shame and sin,
Tyrant-priests again shall rule
Over state, and home, and school,
Miles and Morgan thunder: "Nay;
Liberty has come to stay!"

Chorus

Miles and Morgan! Let their names
Ring aloud in glad acclaims;
Each a nation's guiding star,
One in peace and one in war;
Washington ~~in~~ Morgan smiles,
Warner's valor shines in Miles.

2. Statesman true and Soldier brave!
They have come our land to save;
God hath sent these twain to fight
For His own, and human, right;
They resist our country's foes,
Let the ranks behind them close.

Chorus

3. Now the hour has found the men,
Sound their praises, tongue and pen;
On the ballot write their names,
Write ^{them} on the clouds in flames,
Write them in your inmost hearts,
Ere your liberty departs.

Chorus.

4. Miles and Morgan! Who shall say
Men like these shall lose the day?
That America will shew
What her knights have thus begun?
And the enemies of Man
Truth again put under ban?
Chorus.

MILES AND MORGAN.

* * * *

1- When 'tis said that Rome shall win
Earth again from shame and sin,
Tyrant-priests again shall rule
Over state, and home, and school,
Miles and Morgan thunder "Nay:
Liberty has come to stay".

Chorus

Miles and Morgan! Let their names
Ring aloud in glad acclaims;
Each a Nation's guiding star,
One in peace and one in war;
Washington on Morgan smiles,
Warren's valor shines in Miles.

2- Statesman true and soldier brave;
They have come our land to save;
God hath sent these twain to fight
For his own, and human right;
They resist our Country's foes.
Let the ranks behind them close.

Chorus

3- Now the hour has found the men,
Sound their praises, tongue and pen;
On the ballot write their names,
Write them on the clouds in flames,
Write them in your inmost hearts,
Ere your liberty depart.

Chorus

4- Miles and Morgan! Who shall say
Men like these shall lose the day?
That America will shun
What her knights have thus begun?
And the enemies of Man
Truth again put under ban?
