Headquarters Department of Pennsylvania,

Baltimore, Md., October 18, 1861.

Hon William H. Seward, Secretary of State.

Sir: I have the honor to inclose a list of prisoners brought to Fort McHenry within the last three days. All but Julius, of whom I ~~know~~ know nothing, are implicated in the same criminal acts----recruiting and forwarding men to the Confederate Army. Julius is said to have been concerned in facilitating their passage across the Potomac. It is desirable that they should be sent away from Fort McHenry to some place of security more distant from their friends who are constantly seeking access to them.

I am, very respectfully,

John A. Dix,

Major-General, Commanding.

( Inclosure. )

List of prisoners sent to Fort McHenry, October 16, 1861.

William F. McKewen was clerk to the board of police commissioners. He is an active and dangerous rebel; was the leader and adviser of the old police in their rebellious opposition to the Government; he was detected in enlisting men for the rebel army and was going himself.

Robert Renwick, a cabinetmaker of Scotch birth ; very boisterous and obnoxious in his opposition to the Government. He was detected in enlisting men for the rebel army. A box of minie rifle balls was found on his premises.

R. H. Bigger, a lawyer; believed to have been commissioned by the rebels as a recruiting officer here. He was detected enlisting men for the rebel army in connection with the two first named in this list ( McKewen and Renwick.)

George Julius was sent here by General Banks. He has been engaged for some time past in conveying recruits across the Potomac at Marsh Run.

Charles D. French, implicated with Bigger in recruiting for the rebel army.

Robert Rae, implicated with Bigger in recruiting for the rebel army.

Report

Headquarters, Baltimore,

November 26, 1861.

Hon. William H. Seward, Secretary of State.

Sir: I have the honor to inclose a list of prisoners at Fort McHenry on the 19th instant. No additions have been made until to-day/. A man by the name of Goe has been sent there, but I am not prepared at the moment to report his case/. It would be a great convenience if all these prisoners including Thomas( Zarvona) could be sent away.

I am, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

John A. Dix,

Major-General.

Headquarters, Baltimore, Feb. 17, 1862.

Hon. William H. Seward, Secretary of State.

Sir: In accordance with the request contained in your letter of the 13th instant I have the honor to inclose a list of prisoners other than prisoners of war received at Fort McHenry since the 4th of March last. A large number of these prisoners were discharged subsequently to their transfer from Fort McHenry to other places of detention, and I have not deemed it necessary to designate them as I suppose the evidence of all such discharges is in the State Department. Mr. Malcolm Ives is regarded as a prisoner of war and is not included in the list.

I am, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

John A. Dix,

Major-General.
