Statement of Shayna Gluck Lazarevich

I am here today on behalf of my children. I would like to introduce them to you. I can't. All that I have of my children- all that I have had for the last 33 months are these photographs you see beside me. Their names are Sasha, who is 9 years old, and Andre who is 6 years old. Their father is Dragisa Lazarevich, a native of Nis who is 46 years old, and whom I married in the United States 1982. We were divorced in California in 1989.

Almost three years ago on September 30, 1989 Sasha and Andre were kidnapped from our home in Santa Cruz, California. Dragisa Lazarevich came for what was supposed to be the children's weekend with their father. As always and in good faith, I gave him the children. I never saw Sasha and Andre again. I learned, about a month later, after desperately trying to find Sasha and Andre, that Dragisa had kidnapped them to Yugoslavia, somewhere near Nis.

Having never been to Yugoslavia before and having absolutely no idea what to do I sought the advice of the U.S. Department of State and Yugoslavian authorities. I was advised to seek the lawful return of my children in the Yugoslavian courts. I was told that this was how I could get my children back.

In the months, in the years that followed, I have won a total of 7 decisions from the Serbian courts upholding my right to my children including a verdict from the Supreme Court of Serbia that was handed down more than a year ago, but never enforced.

On March 20 of this year the District Court of Belgrade handed down its final decision affirming my right to my children again and, I was told, for the last time.

Following this, President Milosevic and Serbian Minister of Justice, Zoran Cerkovic, gave their personal assurances to the highest officials of the United States Government that with the final decision of the court the case would be favorably resolved by the enforcement of the court order. Dragisa Lazarevich was somehow able to defy the assurances of the President and the Minister, violate the court order, escape the police and flee with Sasha and Andre.

I was told that, under the guidance of Minister Cerkovic an attempt was made on April 23 to execute the court order at the primary school "Ucitelj Tasa" that my children attended in Nis. Apparently this attempt failed.

In the opinion of Minister Cerkovic, the local authorities in Nis warned Dragisa of their plans. I was also told by the Minister that he was deeply concerned for the safety of the children because Dragisa had threatened to take the lives of Sasha and Andre and his own life should the authorities try to enforce the court order. He also explained to me that Dragisa is known to be armed, dangerous and extremely unstable. Following the kidnapping, the Minister told me that an arrest warrant was issued and the borders secured. I have been assured that the police are intensively searching for Sasha and Andre. Unfortunately the authorities have, thus far, been unsuccessful.

Its a natural instinct of any mother to be with her children, and there is great deal of research that suggests this is the best place for them to be, but another other powerful consideration for not wanting Sasha and Andre to be left with their father is the fact, proven by documents presented to the Courts in the United States and Serbia, that he has a criminal record, a fact unknown to me until he kidnapped the children. Among other things, he was charged with attempted murder and carrying concealed weapons: he was convicted of burglary. In the arrest warrants outstanding for him in the United States He is described as being "armed and dangerous." In preparation for kidnapping the children he fraudulently obtained duplicate U.S. passports for them. His own passport, is itself a mystery, since he is not a U.S. citizen and the Yugoslavia authorities say there is no record of his having a Yugoslav passport.

My own experience of him, was of a man, with a sudden, violent temper and in the few brief encounters that I've had with my children they have told me of things that suggest they have been victims of this too. The physical and psychological condition of both children has caused me, and others who were with me at the time, great anxiety. They did not look well cared for, and my son was seriously under weight for his age. He was also given to moments of unusual behavior, suggesting that he has suffered in other ways from the traumas that he has experienced.

Today, I would like to appeal to the people of Serbia to help the authorities in locating my children so that Sasha and Andre can, at last, be reunited with their mother. Only in this way, can an end be put to this pattern of abusive and criminal behavior, contemptuous not only of me and of my children, but also of the standards of decency that are accepted in the United States and in Serbia.

Please join Congresswomen Helen Delich Bentley, and the Serbian authorities in seeing to the safe and lawful return of Sasha and Andre.

URGENT ATTENTION NEEDED

Election Day
November 6, 1990

Congresswoman Helen Delich Bentley

Dear Mrs. Bentley:

Reflecting further on your trip to Serbia, the more I think about it, the more I conclude that it is imperative that you meet with the two prime presidential candidates together, Slobodan Milosevic and Vuk Draskovic. Things are getting worse overthere by the minute. Slobodan is under a real pressure from both sides: protecting the communists and at the same time trying to cater to the populace. Under the upcoming election pressure, the conflicting stands that he must face will become further unbearable, and who knows, the long expected military involvement might be the only answer to maintain law and order. We all know that if military gets involved, Serbia will further fall into disfavor and that will affect adversely the Serbs outside the boundaries of the Republic of Serbia, as well.

I see difficulties with three distinct periods that lie ahead: the campaign period; the election, itself; and the period after the election. IT IS ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY THAT FULL CONTROLS ARE EXERTED IN ALL OF THE THREE PHASES, AND THAT THE SERBIAN PEOPLE REMAIN AS CALM AND AS UNEMOTIONAL TO PREVENT ANY SPONTANEOUS AND IRRATIONAL MOVES ON THE PART OF SLOBODAN AND HIS SOCIALISTS. If that is succeeded, and that is only for the next six months, than we have successfully navigated all of the hurdles.

YOUR MEETING WITH Vuk Draskovic and Slobodan Milosevic should address the very three concerns, if you also feel that they are true concerns.

Vuk Draskovic is a fast rising star in the Serbian politics. He is a well respected author, and has the very basic anti communist appeal and stands for pushing to have the Serbs regain dignity and respect of themselves which they lost for the past 45 years under Tito. IF ELECTION WERE HELD TODAY, HE WOULD WIN THE PRESIDENCY OF SERBIA. Everyone thinks that Slobodan has all kinds of tricks in his hat which will sway the people to his side at the very last minute. All recognize that Milosevic has the power, resources, media, and the army, and that he is saving his last moves to prey on peoples emotions and win the presidency in that manner. ALL AGREE, HOWEVER, THAT IF ALL REMAINS PEACEFUL AND MILOSEVIC WINS BECAUSE OF HIS LAST RESORT TRICKS, THEN HIS PARTY WILL DEFINITELY LOSE IN THE PARLIAMENT. In that scenario, Vuk Draskovic will emerge as the leader in the Parliament along with the rest of the minority parties. Also, it is expected that if that happens, namely, Milosevic wins as the president, the Parliament will truly be pluralistic, and Milosevic will not have a party support, at all. It will be interesting to see what is Milosevic going to do then, abandon his party, or be a lame duck president.

The above review quickly brings into focus the reasons to really be concerned and to want to take a good look at Vuk Draskovic and see him as the real power person in the Serbian politics. For some reason he has remain obscured, perhaps, because the Serbian opposition wants to see Milosevic win, so that it becomes confirming what a Stalinist he is and how decadent are the Serbian people: Easterners and backward, etc.

We must stop all of this. Your meeting with Vuk Draskovic, Slobodan Milosevic and whoever else, will give credence to the popularity of Vuk Draskovic, hopefully will be able to give him media recognition in America before the election overthere, and your meeting with them together (you should insist) should get wide coverage in their press as well. This will further your already high popularity in Serbia.

PRE-ELECTION PERIOD: Milosevic should be warned in front of all that his big job and the one that is mostly expected of him to keep peace and order, and not use any coercive means, he nor his Socialist, to defraud the masses, nor incite any civil disobedience which might be used by them as a valid reason for using repressive means: army, or militia, thus further avoid the holding of elections altogether. They just might do that, particularly as they further see that they will be ousted from power through election. Since Vuk Draskovic is extremely popular and a strong contender, it would be wise to urge the two leaders (Draskovic and Milosevic) to control the crowds and to run as fair of a campaign as possible without provoking rioting, civil disobedience, etc. Milosevic is to be put on notice that the Socialists in no way are to keep the media away from the opposition. Some guidelines should be at this time arrived at. For example, that each party be allowed a page in the Serbian publications and so much time over the radio and TV, or at least an equal time to whatever Milosevic is getting, directly by him, or by someone else, or in someone else's name.

THE ELECTION: Socialists are intending to control the election process in total. This must never be allowed, because they will use that leverage to steal and manipulate the vote counting, etc. There must be a creation of a central board composed of all of the parties, and at each local level, there must be equal and total representation of all the parties. Every opportunity to steal votes must be avoided. All of this must be done in a calm manner and carried on civilly, so that we are not once again embarrassed in front of the world when foreign delegations as observers attend elections and see anything else than an orderly election process. MILOSEVIC MUST COMMIT TO YOU OPENLY AND IN FRONT OF THE OTHER MEMBERS at the conference that he: 1. he has the situation under control; 2. that he will have the situation under control; and 3. that he will resort to every means to restrain his Socialists from inciting civil disobedience.

POST ELECTION PERIOD: If everything goes well, this will be the most crucial period, when as hoped, the cummies will lose power in Serbia. If Milosevic wins the presidency, Socialists will still lose the power. How is Milosevic going to feel, and what is he going to do? He must know the answer to this question, because some indicators are rather obvious that might happen, unless he loses altogether to Vuk Draskovic, which is just as real as the former. In that case Vuk Draskovic as the obvious leader and elected leader, will have a great burden to maintain order and control any form of reprisals, which might again be used as an excuse to employ military and totally defeat the efforts that went into the free election process.

Mrs. Bentley, I think that you see more than ever that your visit on Wednesday is an absolute MUST! At this point you will not be seeing the strong Milosevic of few months ago, you will see a different man. The people are becoming more open and the choices for the people's representation are better; the Serbs are coming back to their parliamentary "home" and they are beginning to exercise that right. They do not see Milosevic as a bad person, but they distinctly see that behind Milosevic are some bad guys, and that in his presence he is protecting the communist criminal element that have exerted some real repressive force on the people for 45 years. They do not want these people directing things behind the scenes. They see Vuk Draskovic as a viable alternative, and that has deflated Milosevic's chances. Occasional incidences where Draskovic's people have been beaten, add more to depopularizing Milosevic and his men; it brings bad memories back to people.

As the result of our conversation last night, I believe that Milosevic is not returning your messages because of his recent speech in Bor, Serbia. For the first time in his campaigning, he was very nervous, and extremely belligerent in his speech. He attacked the opposition parties as rebels along with the Serbs living in the Free World as giving aid and support to those elements in Serbia running to oust Milosevic. This is the first time that he has attacked the people from without, and that might just include any other influence from abroad. He is running scared, he is cognizant of his shortcomings, he is seeing the opposition gaining, and he is running into a corner. That is why he is trying to avoid you, and thus avoid criticism, as well. WITH THAT YOU MUST REALIZE THAT YOUR VISIT IS MORE IMPORTANT NOW THAN EVER!

Your visit to Serbia, and inclusion of Vuk Draskovic, if properly done by the media, will definitely reestablish faith in America. You must realize that the Serbs always had a big heart toward America, and they sacrificed their best in two world wars for the cause defended by America. Robert Dole, Diogardi, Lantos and the company certainly have brought into question the present American feelings toward Serbia and the America they once knew. Your open visit to Serbia, and including Vuk into your agenda with Milosevic and others, will definitely rekindle that big brother feeling with the Serbs. Your visit and your firm position and recommendations, making sure that they commit to their promises will set Serbia sailing to Democracy in the way we all want to see. Anything else than that will enlarge the question and increase intolerance as to the question of Serbia's future, and thus our own people. We must all remember, Croats, Albanians, Slovenians want Serbia to fail, and want to see civil disobedience and trouble in Serbia.

Please let me know, so that I can play a part of getting Vuk Draskovic involved. He is a recognized leader and he would appreciate if you would give him personal invitation to the meeting. VUK DRASKOVIC'S fax no.: 0113811-328-576. If you do, and I hope you give him a personal invitation by FAX, kindly tell him that you were communicating with me and that I was pushing for this meeting. It will give credit where it belongs and will brings us all closer.

FAX WHERE I CAN BE REACHED: 216-842-6163.

Thank you for all of your efforts. GOOD LUCK TODAY!

Dear Vojin:

Thanks for sharing with me your concerns about the plight of the Serbian people in Yugoslavia. Coincidentally, I received your letter the same day the House of Representatives considered a measure regarding the situation in Yugoslavia.

You will be pleased to know that I voted against this measure, which I felt unfairly singled out the Serbian government in assessing blame for the violence that has occurred in recent months. In my view, this measure would only serve to exacerbate the already tense situation and would do nothing to advance the interests of peace and human rights in Yugoslavia.

You can count on me to take an evenhanded approach when considering U.S. policy in the region. Please stay in touch.

REPUBLIČKOJ IZBORNOJ KOMISIJI
B e o g r a d

PREDSTAVKA;

Obrćamo vam se sa zahtevom da na svojoj prvoj sednici zauzmete stav o ponašanju lista "Politika" i TV Beograd, za koje smatramo da su povredili zakonske odredbe vezane za obavezu obavljanja svih propagandnih i informativnih aktivnosti u periodu od 48 sati pred početak ovogodišnjih izbora u Republici Srbiji (tzv. "izborno ćutanje") te preduzmete odgovarajuće zakonske mere koje su vam na raspolaganju.

Povod za ovu našu predstavku je, pre svega, tekst koji je "Politika" objavila u broju od 8. decembra na svojoj trećoj strani pod naslovom "Zeleni na izdisaju", kojim se na indirektni način, u zavijenoj formi, sugeriše biraćima u Srbiji da i iskustva decembraskih opštenemaćkih izbora govore da je "prošlo vreme ekoloških partija" i da takve političke organizacije nemaju budućnost a da budućnost imaju ekološki pokreti, upravo ono na čemu insistiraju aktuelne srpske vlasti (socijalističke).

Smatramo da je objavljivanje ovakvog teksta sa vrlo reduciranom argumentacijom sračunato i da je njegov cilj stvaranje psihološkog ustiska kod biraća o "zelenim poslanicima" u budućem srpskom parlamentu kao "nepouzdanim, svadljivim, naivnim, prevrtljivim", posebno ako se imaju u vidu brojne veze svih evropskih zelenih sa zapadnonemaćkim zelenima, pa i Zelene stranke sa sedištem u Beogradu.

Više nego smo zaprepašćeni opremom teksta datog na udarnim stranama, kojim se podvlači stav da su "zeleni na izdisaju", da "sumorne procene govore da je za zelene najbolje da budu komunist (čitajte: socijalista), da su "Zeleni potrošili kredit", da su nesobni" za dobru politiku koja traži jake i sposobne ličnosti" i slično.

Smramo da je objavljivanjem ovako jednostranog teksta na ta neprocenjiva politička šteta Zelenoj stranci i njenim poslaničkim kandidatima, dan uoči izbora, kada ostaju bez mogućnosti da iznesu protivargumente. Jer, bilo je osnova da "Politika" objavi, a to nije učinila, tekst o "katastrofalnom izbornom porazu nemačkih socijalista na koje hoće da liče i srpski socijalisti" ili o potpunoj marginalizaciji zapadnonemačkih komunista, s obzirom na rezultate opštenemačkih izbora od 2. decembra. Uredjivačkoj politici "Politike" to ne odgovara, kao što joj ne odgovara da iznese suštinske razloge ostajanja zelenih Nemačke pred vratima Bundestaga. A ti razlozi su: rast nemačkog nacionalizma, te borba nemačkih zelenih protiv formiranja "Četvrtog Rajha", dosledno i prometejsko principijelno insistiranje na demilitarizaciji Nemačke, odustajanje od gradnje atomske bombe, akciji da nemački vojnici ne odu u Persijski zaliv, stavu da se moraju poštovati granice sa Poljskom, da se ne smije dozvoliti da bivša Istočna Nemačka postane ekološka deponija razvijenog Zapada, da se mora menjati politika Nemačke prema Trećem svetu, i da ne nabrajamo. Svega toga nema u pomenutom tekstu, i to više nije samo pitanje uredjivačke politike lista, već pokazatelj da se sve može koristiti u borbi sa svojim najrazornijim kritičarima, a to je Zelena stranka, u više navrata dosad, ne samo pokazala već i dokazala.

Istovremeno protestujemo što se na programu TV Beograd u dvema emisijama u vreme izbornog ćutanja našlo vreme za "nepolitičko" predstavljanje dva ~~mlade~~ poslanička kandidata iz redova Socijalističke partije Srbije: Darinke Matić-Marović i Batrića Jovanović

The Honorable Helen Delich Bentley
Member of the United States Congress

Lutherville, Maryland 21093

Dear Mrs. Bentley:

CONGRATULATIONS on your reelection to the United States House of Representatives.

With that success, I do not know why you would not consider moving on to the higher positions - the Senate, for instance. Position of the Vice President for you should be talked about loudly, etc.

It makes me very happy that you won for two reasons. One, you as a person won and I am very pleased. Two, you as fighter for decency, truth, justice, fairness and principles in general and especially now fighting for all of these for the Serbian People, who, for a time being seem to be left, forgotten and even turned against in many different ways by many (if not all) other nations. It seems that the Good Lord has doubly rewarded your hard work and efforts by granting you the reelection and by showing the results of your hard work on the floor of the House of Representatives, when they defeated with the unprecedented majority that very bias and anti-Serbian resolution 352 (385).

God bless you Mrs. Bentley. I pray that He will use your honesty, decency, justice, fairness and forthrightness to fulfill His Will in bringing about all these virtues and good things to the people who may have been deprived them - Serbs and others alike.

May you have a blessed and happy forthcoming Thanksgiving Holiday, Christmas Season and a happy, blessed, successful and prosperous new, 1991, year.

Yours very truly,

Fr. Dragoljub C. Malich

О Б Р А З Л О Ж Е Н Ј Е

Основна је намера да се политичким организацијама које истакну у више од 85 изборних јединица (више од једне трећине укупног броја изборних јединица) кандидате, омогући да имају по једног члана у Републичкој изборној комисији и изборним комисијама изборних јединица и бирачким одборима. Такође се предвиђа и могућност да се изборне комисије изборних јединица и бирачки одбори прошире и са још највише два представника осталих предлагача кандидата за народне посланике.

Уверени смо да је ово решење кључна тачка у компромису којим се обезбеђује несметано одвијање изборног надметања и заустављају даља сукобљавања на политичкој позорници око изборних правила.

Оцењујемо да овакво решење задовољава захтеве политичких организација, а да поменути органи не губе на ефикасности.

Предлажемо хитан поступак јер су избори заказани за 9. децембар. Сматрамо да би овакво решење у многоме допринело стабилизацији политичке ситуације у Србији и могућности да се и поред изборне кампање окренемо решавању виталних животних проблема. Исто тако, отклониле би се све сумње и инсинуације да избори у Србији неће бити слободни и демократски, а убеђени смо да би под овим условима све политичке странке учествовале у изборима.

Прихватањем оваквог решења ни једна политичка странка Србије није губи, није добија. Добија само Србија.

OUR REF.: 5407
(PLEASE ALWAYS QUOTE)

Belgrade, 3 September, 1990

In connection with our telephone conversation of 30 August, 1990, we inform you of the status of the Lazarević case, at present.

There are two procedures in course:

- A) The procedure for recognition and enforcement of the American court decision.
- B) Criminal procedure against D. Lazarević.

A.

By its decision of 20.07.1-90, the District Court of Belgrade, ruled that the following two decisions are enforceable under Yugoslav Law:

- 1) Verdict of the Supreme Court of the State of California, D No. 226401 of 17.05.1989, with which the marriage between Shayna and Dragiša Lazarević has been divorced, and according to which the principle residence of the children Sacha and Andre Lazarević, would be with the submitter of the request, Shayna Lazarević.
 - 2) Decision of the Supreme Court of the State of California D No. 226401 of 25.05.1989, according to which the proposer Shayna Lazarević will have exclusive legal and physical custody of the children Sacha and Andre Lazarević until further notice.
- On 01.08.1990, at our request, the IV Municipal Court in Belgrade, issued an injunction, by which the mother would be given custody of the children, until pending proceedings are terminated.

- On 02.08.1990, we filed the same request with the District Court in Belgrade.
- On 06.08.1990, the IV Municipal Court in Belgrade brought a decision with which the decision of the District Court has been declared enforceable.
- The judge, Olivera Tucaković from the District Court of Belgrade, issued an order to the police in Svrljig, to take the children away from D. Lazarević and to hand them over to the mother, Shayna Lazarević. At the same time, she suggested we immediately request enforcement of the decision of the IV Municipal Court in Belgrade, regardless of the fact that it has not yet become final, which we have done on 06.08.1990.
- After several months of avoidance of D. Lazarević to receive this decision, his attorney Sava Andjelković, address Nušićeva 10, Belgrade, tel: 335-741, received the Decision for him.
- Since the whereabouts of D. Lazarević is unknown, the execution could not be carried out.

B.

- On 25.07.1990, criminal charges were filed with the II Municipal Public Prosecutor against D. Lazarević, for the criminal offence of kidnapping, according to Art. 116 of the Criminal Law of SR Serbia.
- The Public Prosecutor ordered the police to find D. Lazarević and bring him in for interrogation and take away his passport.
- According to Art. 434 of the Criminal Procedure Law, the Public Prosecutor is obliged to start criminal proceedings within 30 days from the date of filing the criminal charges, or to reject the criminal charges. In case he fails to do this, the injured party, in this case Shayna Lazarević, can commence prosecution herself. After the expiry of this term, we talked with the Public Prosecutor Dragan Mraković, who informed us that in his opinion, there are no elements for starting proceedings, in any case, not before he receives a report from the Ministry of Internal Affairs.
- In the meantime, Shayna Lazarević received information from a friend from Niš, that the car belonging to D. Lazarević had been seen on the streets of Niš. The car is a very conspicuous black Corvette. The car had Yugoslav registration plates, even though two months ago, it had Californian registration plates. This fact could show the negligence of the work of the Niš police.

contd...3.

- A vital fact is that on 03.09.1990, the school year starts, and that there is a possibility that Sacha Lazarević, the elder of the two children, could be in school. The police refuses to take any action before the principle confirms to us that the child is in this school. We called the principle on 3 September, who informed us that children were early released, and suggested we call tomorrow.

Yours faithfully,

Srdja M. Popović

stated that if he or Milosevic win presidency he will work to lessen the powers of the presidency.

.... only succeeded because of my personal guarantee that Serbia would have fair ~~and~~ just multi-party elections on December 9th. You will be closely watched by the Congressmen and Senators that helped us and ~~we~~ ^{you} cannot afford a mis-step that ~~you~~ will do you irreparable damage which will last for many years. If just and true elections are not held and other changes ^{not} made you will be soundly attacked by Congress, the media and the Serbian-Americans.

And you can be assured that I will lead the attack.

You have started on the right road. There must be a free and open press for everyone and an open country for everyone. And it must be done NOW.

You must remember one thing this ~~was~~ ~~victory~~ was achieved by the fact that I was in the right ~~place~~ place -- the U.S. Congress at the right time -- when Serbia was attacked.

All others -- your ambassador, your embassy, the so-called Serbian leaders -- have no influence on Congress. The Yugoslav Embassy can only ~~interpret and~~ brief the State Department.

I can talk to the members of Congress and influence them because I am one of them -- and they believe in my credibility.

Your Tanjug, reporters and editors must ^{made} be aware of this.

I am going above and beyond the call ^{of} and duty and exerting superhuman ~~and~~ efforts and Tanjug's first report did not even mention my name. -- as if I had no role in the success of last week,

The effort was spearheaded and guided by me with concerned individual Serbian-Americans phoning and writing their Congressmen. There is NO Serbian lobby at work here -- and your press must stop referring to it as this is not doing us any good. The words "Serbian Lobby" are ammunition for our enemies.

Via Courier Oct 11/90 (9)

Copy of Oct 11/90 Sent by Courier

Items picked up re UNITY CONGRESS to take place on Dec. 9th in Cleveland

- Mica Radenkovich is against the congress -- ditto RPS
- there are several scenarios and ideas being talked about:
 1. Maglich is the gray eminence for the Congress and working ~~behind~~ behind the scenes
 - Djordjevich just a front man
 - another name coming up is Milinovich - who wants ^{to} give money to the Serbian Bank
 - working with Zimmerman and Milesevich
 - does not as yet have ~~any~~ U.S. government approval
 - another version is that Michael Djordjevich wanted to give a $30 million loan to Serbia but the U.S. government dropped it
 - another name being bandied about is Panich Pharmaceuticals
 2. What has people here upset about the Congress is the perception that it is anti-HDB
 - although when they are promoting the Congress on the local radio program via a tape from Cleveland HDB's name is mentioned first --
 2. There is talk that Sofia Skorich and Brana Crncevich will be at the convention so that all the Serbs in the world will be united with the help of the Matica from Belgrade
 - ~~what~~ the Skorich-Crncevich connection to many people here is anathema...

Crncevich is a member of the Yugoslav Socialist Party

Sofia Skorich is a librarian from Toronto who is spending an awful lot of time in Yugoslavia -- here ~~is~~ she is perceived as very 'red' and her name is poison to a lot of people -- (I stay away from here and wouldn't touch her with a ten-foot pole)

- the Matica idea they are promoting to unite the Serbs here with the Serbs ^{over} there ~~is~~ is also creating paranoia AMONG A lot of Serbs here and the U.S.

The Matica was originally formed by the ~~Serbs~~Commie Serbs, who returned to Yugoslavia in ~~the~~ 1947 to help Tito's build a worker's paradise. They returned on the ship RADNIK and took cars, fridges, washing machines, etc. -- all was taken from them when they landed in Yugoslavia. During WWII they were all commies helping TITO and his cause. Several of the leaders who returned were rewarded by Tito -- one Edo Jarda became an ambassador, the editor ~~was~~ of the Yugoslav Communist newspaper in Canada was given the post of president of the newly formed MATICA to keep in contact with the emigres. That is the background of the MATICA organization which they are supposedly now trying to re-~~form~~ ^{rehabilitate} Michunovich, president of the Democratic Party, while he was here -- said the opposition parties do not have any contact with it as it is still a government organ.

Matica man out of money planning people like crazy for money

-- Talk here is that both Crncevich and Sofia with their Matica idea will be at the congress along with a surprise guest from Yugoslavia - some here are almost paranoid about the whole thing

Crncevich stated here last year that Serbia does not need opposition parties.

Djordjevich's father was here in Toronto 10 days ago and said that they don't need HDB or Bob Stone -- his son is the top leader with connections ~~to~~ to Bush (he can walk into Bush's office ~~with~~ at any time ????)

he was asked by the Republican's to form a Serbian leadership that they can listen to - he also indicated that he son is close to the John Birch Society

- they expected 1000 at the Congress but so far have 160 coming
- ~~are~~ have Aleksander Karadjordjevich (Paulson as a sponsor in place of the late Andre
- many both here and in the US feel that this congress is becoming an anti HDB thing even though they are using HDB's name

Serbian government is sending someone ~~over~~ over or hiring someone in Washington to act

Since you gave him Rape of Serbia last time - give him Martin's now ✓
