DEAD UNDER SERBIAN DOMINATION

(Yugoslavia, 1991) Instead of seeking universal freedom, Serbians pursue physical Serbo-Bolshevik expansionism at the expense of Albanian culture. Cherishing their slavish roots, Serbs believe in the use of slavery. As long as Serbs are the enslavers, Serbian people do not object to oppression.

Serbian metal and mental tyranny sponsored by the neo-serbian oligarchy is an offensive against western civilization. Through fear, purges, and manipulation of beliefs; Serbian dictators are marshalling their people to violate international law. Disrespecting the gifts of Albanian Kosova and Hungarian Vojvodina placed within Serbian authority by the international community, the Serbian regime controlling power in Yugoslavia is violating constitutional law and human rights.

The inability of the authorities of the Republic of Serbia to administrate and allocate justice in the autonomous provinces forced the people of Kosova to strive for independence from Serbia. Elected officials of Kosova voted unanimously to form the Republic of Kosova on July 2, 1990.

The atrocities committed for Serbia is too much for any people to bare for long. The recently reelected Serbian President Slobodan Milosevic, Symbol of Serbia's hatred of non-genetic Serbs, head of the Serbian power pyramid, and model Stalinist dictator, calls us to sound an alarm around the world. Appeasement of Milosevic's appetite increases the genocide and misery. Stopping Milosevic is no longer in question, now we must consider the method.
