The Honorable Slobodan Milošević
President
Republic of Serbia
Belgrade, Yugoslavia

Dear President Milošević:

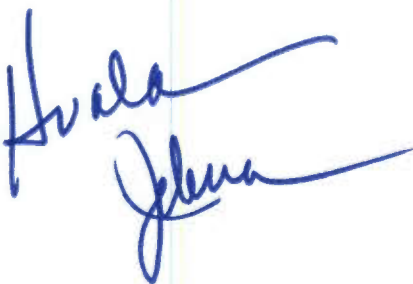

We are delighted to hear that Ms. Shayna Lazarevic has been awarded full custody of her two children by the Supreme Court of Serbia as of today, October 9, 1991, and appreciate the support of your office in handling this case. However, judging by Mr. Lazarevic's past conduct, he will delay if not totally disregard the order to return the children to Ms. Lazarevic.

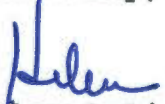

Once again, I call upon you to help expedite the return of the children to their mother. Without your personal attention to this matter the court order probably will not be enforced.

The law firm of Popovic, Popovic, Samardzija & Popovic of Belgrade is representing Ms. Lazarevic. Their telephone number is 339-442.

Thank you in advance for helping to unite these children with their mother. I am extremely grateful for your help in this matter.

Sincerely,

Helen Delich Bentley

Mrs. Joyce Visnick
President
Circle of Serbian Sisters
St. Luke Serbian Orthodox Church
5917 16th Street Northwest
Washington, DC 20011

Dear Mrs. Visnick,

Let me extend my warmest greetings to the Serbian Orthodox colony here in Washington, which is celebrating its Thirtieth Anniversary Slava. I have enjoyed meeting and working with so many in the St. Luke congregation who are involved in the numerous issues confronting our people, both in the United States and Yugoslavia. I applaud your efforts to achieve unity between our churches because we can be so much more effective in helping our people overseas when we are standing united here. I congratulate the women of the Kola for uniting and forming a new Circle, Mala Gospojina, and wish them well as they continue the noble traditions of our beloved Kolo Srpskih Sestara.

Wishing you many years of growth and prosperity!

Zivili na mnoga ja ljeta!

Yours truly,

Dear Mr. Shatlan:

Thank you for the photos from the Serbian Unity Congress. It was thoughtful of you to send them to me.

My staff and I also appreciate you sending us "Serbia Today". It is a big help to have the extra news source.
